Top German Officials Meet In Showdown

Adenauer, Erhard Confer Secretly On Chancellor Quarrel

BONN, Germany (AP) — Angry Ludwig Erhard confronted Konrad Adenauer today with the sharpest challenge to the aged chancellor's political supremacy since he took office a decade ago.

Returning from a visit to Washington, Erhard announced he would contest the 83-year-old Adenauer's decision last week to remain as chancellor rather than carry out his previously announced plan to step up to the West German presidency. Erhard had been the favorite to take over the government.

The big question was whether Erhard could muster enough support in the ruling Christian Democratic party to force the Adenauer to loosen his iron grip.

As economic minister and the architect of West Germany's postwar recovery, Erhard is considered one of the party's biggest vote getters. But Adenauer was strong enough last week to win the reluctant consent of the party's parliamentary caucus to his change of plans.

Erhard conferred until early this morning with Heinrich Krone, Christian Democratic floor leader, Hermann Hoecherl, the chief of the party's Bavarian branch, and Willi Rasner, party business manager.

Asked if he would resign as economic minister, Erhard replied, "That depends."

The 62-year-old economic minister, who is Adenauer's vice chancellor as well, also challenged published rumors that his chief thinks he is not equipped to head the country in this time of international crisis.

Steel Union Eyes Company Negotiations

NEW YORK (AP)—The United Steelworkers Union is seeking to resume company-by-company contract negotiations between committees next Tuesday.

This type of negotiation was abandoned a month ago. Since then, the talks have been conducted by four-man teams representing the union and the 12 largest companies in the industry.

Industry leaders reserved decision on whether to go along with the union's request for resumption of company-by-company bargaining.

Some sources believed the union's maneuver was made with the hope of finding one or more companies that would break away from the industry's solid front. The companies have stood united in their demand for a one-year freeze on wages and other employe benefits, as a curb against inflation.

Union President David J. McDonald informed the industry negotiators Tuesday that the union wanted to resume negotiations on a company-by-company basis.

In a move in this direction, McDonald summoned the union's 435-member, rank-and-file negotiating committee to meet here Tuesday.

In Berlin Crisis

West Snubs New Soviet Proposal

GENEVA (AP)—The Soviet Union has proposed to the Western powers a one-year moratorium in the Berlin crisis—provided the West agrees to begin working out a German settlement on Soviet terms.

A U.S. spokesman said the proposal—which would put the West under a new deadline—was "totally unacceptable" and must have been introduced by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko "in order to bring about the breakdown" of the Big Four conference.

Andrew H. Berding, assistant secretary of state, making public the Soviet proposal which was advanced at a secret session Tuesday, reported the Western reaction today at a news conference.

Berding said that "obviously there is no point in going on with the conference on the basis of these proposals."

Gromyko, after his move at the secret session at the residence of U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter Tuesday, got agreement to a formal Big Four session today. He served notice he would present the proposal there—meaning he would make it public.

Herter and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville, asked for a written statement of the plan. Gromyko refused to provide it.

Berding said the proposal "reintroduces a time limit, one year, into the Berlin situation and also reintroduces the element of threat."

The Soviets originally had proposed on last Nov. 27, a six-month time limit which the West called an ultimatum.

Berding said the proposal as presented by Gromyko covered these general lines:

"The Soviet Union would accept the temporary maintenance of certain Western occupation rights in West Berlin for a one-year period.

"During this period an all-German committee of the (Communist) German Democratic Republic and the (West) German Federal Republic on a parity basis should work out the problem of reunification, agree on the principles of a peace treaty and facilitate the development and broadening of contracts, between the GDR and GFR."

Gromyko, Berding said, declared the one-year time limit was necessary to prevent the West German government from delaying indefinitely the successful completion of a peace treaty.

70 Open Quest For National Spelling Title

WASHINGTON (AP)—Boys and girls who can wade through words that would sink most grownups compete today for the title of national spelling champion.

Seventy youngsters—37 girls and 33 boys—reached the two days of finals through regional contests held all over the country.

The champion will be crowned Thursday after as many rounds as it takes to eliminate all but one. A single miss and they're out.

All the entries are 15 years of age or under. None is past the eighth grade in school.

John Nelson, 9, of Houston, Tex., is the youngest.

Gerardo Aguirre, 15, of Tamaulipas, Mexico, is the oldest. Gerardo also is the first Mexican to get all the way to the finals in the 32 national spelling bees. He crosses the Rio Grande every day to attend classes in Laredo, Tex.

Help Combat Inflation, Ike Asks Doctors

Reasonable Fees One Way, President Says At Meeting

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—President Eisenhower has called upon organized doctors to help write a preventive prescription against inflation in the same way they guard the nation's physical health.

And one way, he told the 108th annual meeting of the American Medical Assn. Tuesday night, is by charging reasonable fees for medical care. He made no accusation that doctors were charging unreasonable rates.

In his speech he hammered anew at what he termed the urgent need for a balanced federal budget.

"For those who will take the trouble to look, there is no difficulty in seeing the relationship between fiscal responsibility and a successful, meaningful life for all in a climate of freedom," he said.

"I am confident that you doctors as community leaders in great urban centers and in the villages and farm areas of America, can do much to promote greater understanding of the importance of this vital relationship.

"So I believe that, as you show us how better to preserve our own health, you can do a great service to yourselves, and to all of us, as you teach that the future of our republic and the free world depends upon our ability to maintain fiscal soundness in government, a robust economy, and a stable dollar."

He led up to this by saying that "the medical profession as much as any other, has a vital interest in preventing inflation."

"Certainly," the President said, "it wants to provide its services for a fee within range of what people can reasonably pay."

As though cautioning against any possibility of the government moving into the medical care field on a large scale Eisenhower said: "If the time ever comes when large numbers of our citizens turn primarily to the government for assistance in what ought to remain a private arrangement between doctor and patient, then we shall have suffered a great loss.

"The cost of inflation is not paid in dollars alone, but in increasingly stagnated progress, lost opportunities, and eventually, if unchecked, in lost freedoms for the doctor and patient."

France Steadily Drawing Away From NATO Leaders

PARIS (AP) — France appears to be drawing steadily away from her chief partners in the Atlantic Alliance as President Charles de Gaulle puts on pressure to win his country an equal role with Britain and the United States.

Western diplomats are openly concerned over how far the stubborn French president will go.

De Gaulle has set a course aimed at restoring France to her lost international prestige and power. His strategy appears to be to cold shoulder various NATO projects until the United States and Britain openly recognize the "grandeur of France" which De Gaulle proclaims with religious fervor.

De Gaulle is asking to be accepted as a bargaining equal to President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan. His demand is viewed as somewhat unrealistic since France has no atomic bomb, only two under-strength divisions now under NATO and is threatened with internal dissension over Algeria.

De Gaulle wants the formula on how to put together an A-bomb. He can't get it from the United States. Congress forbids that. Britain shows no inclination to give it to him.

The French president wants to work out with Eisenhower and Macmillan a global policy including the Middle East, Asia and Africa. But both the United States and Britain have misgivings about France's refusal to promise Algeria independence. The United States doesn't want its Far East policy decided in Paris. Britain is jealous of her role as senior partner to the United States in NATO.

Senate Vote On Sales Tax Revision Due

DiSalle Turns Down Windfall; House To Act On Car Tag Hike

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A scheduled Senate vote on sales tax revision and the governor's voluntary rejection of a possible 30-million dollar tax windfall shared the spotlight today in a tax-harried Ohio Legislature.

These were the major tax developments as the Legislature neared the windup on Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's stiff tax program:

Sales tax—The Senate votes today on a bill to increase the sales tax yield 34 million dollars in the next two years, but it apparently doesn't have the votes to drop the tax stamp system to which DiSalle objects.

Auto licenses—The House votes today on a bill to increase the price of license tags from $10 to $15 a year for passenger cars to help pay the cost of highway construction and repair in cities, counties and townships.

Corporation tax — The House completed passage Tuesday of a bill to increase the corporation franchise another 60 million dollars in the next two years.

It appeared for about an hour Tuesday afternoon there might be a legal chance to squeeze an extra 30 million dollars out of the corporations if DiSalle should sign the franchise tax bill before Monday.

DiSalle says compromises have cut his tax program about 46 million dollars below the goal and the chance for a 30 - million - dollar windfall was tempting.

But he voluntarily went to the Statehouse pressroom after an afternoon news conference to announce he plans to defer signing the franchise tax bill until Monday when all question of a possible windfall will be past.

"It would smack of sharp practice," the governor told newsmen, to attempt to collect the increased corporation tax for the year which started June 15, 1958, and ends Monday. In addition he said, the attempt would undoubtedly cause a number of lawsuits.

He had been advised that if he wanted to make the attempt to collect the windfall he probably had better than a 50-50 chance of winning in the courts.

The sales tax bill up for a Senate vote today would reimpose the penny tax on purchases in the 16-40-cent bracket, for the first time in a dozen years. And, for the first time in the history of the tax, there would be a levy against hotel and motel lodgings.

Because of loud and long protests from charitable groups, the system of issuing stamps as sales tax receipts probably will be continued. The protests were based on the fact elimination of the stamps also would eliminate tax

Starkweather Granted Stay Of Execution

WASHINGTON (AP) — Justice Charles Evans Whittaker of the Supreme Court today granted a stay of execution to Charles Starkweather, 20-year-old mass killer from Nebraska.

Starkweather had been scheduled to die in the Nebraska electric chair on Friday morning.

Whittaker said that counsel for Starkweather would have until June 17 to file a petition with the full Supreme Court, asking a review of his case.

If a petition is filed, the stay will remain in effect until the full court acts finally on it.

Whittaker acted on a brief petition for a stay filed late Tuesday by two Washington attorneys.

State's Road Engineers Go Back To Work

Crippling Highway Construction Strike Ends After 2 Weeks

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Operating engineers—the men who handle the big road-building machines—return to work today after a two-week strike that crippled highway construction throughout most of Ohio.

The strike ended Tuesday night with agreement on a new two-year contract for an estimated 8,000 members of Local 18, Operating Engineers Union.

Federal Mediator H. J. Montoney said no details of the settlement will not be announced until the union membership votes on contract ratification. That may not come until the union's statewide meeting here June 21.

The Highway Department said the strike tied up 298 of its 375 new construction projects, involving more than 372 million dollars. It also affected airport construction and work on some housing projects.

It was the first strike by operating engineers in Ohio since 1935.

The contract dispute paralyzed road-building in 76 of the state's 88 counties, although there were cattered settlements with the union by individual construction firms.

Wellsville Boy Injured When Struck By Car

Fellow-Resident's Auto Hits Youth In Steubenville Area

A 8-year-old Wellsville boy is in "serious" condition today with injuries received when struck by a car driven by a Wellsville resident while he was walking across Route 7 near Steubenville Tuesday night at 9:10.

Charles McDowell, son of Mr and Mrs. Charles McDowell, 1023 Center St., was hit by a south bound car driven by Mrs. Matilda Pullie, 42, of Johnson Pl. at Pottery Addition about a mile north of Steubenville, according to the Wintersville State Highway Patrol.

The youth was taken to the Ohio Valley Hospital at Steubenville by a passing motorist. He suffered a laceration of the left hip and scalp, abrasions of the chest and ruptured spleen.

The youth had been visiting an aunt, Mrs. Andy Watas of Pot tery Addition. He reportedly was playing with some other children when the accident happened.

Appellate Court Unanimous

Court Armed With Power To Enforce Hoffa Cleanup

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Court of Appeals today armed U.S. Federal District Court with powers to enforce its cleanup orders on President James R. Hoffa and other officers of the Teamsters union.

In a unanimous decision, the appellate court said Dist. Judge F. Dickenson Letts was within his rights in modifying a consent order which terminated litigation to bar Hoffa from taking office.

Under the order, Hoffa was allowed to take office but a three-member board of monitors was set up to watch over the union's affairs and make recommendations for restoring democracy to the union.

In its opinion today, the appellate court said the recommendations of the monitors are not self-enforcing, but that they may go to Judge Letts for orders putting them into effect.

If Hoffa and the other Teamsters officials fail to comply with recommendations, the appellate court said, the monitors may report this fact to Judge Letts.

"The court, after affording a hearing to the defendant, may take any action necessary within the scope of its decrees," Judge Charles Fahy said in an opinion concurred in by Judges Henry W. Edgerton and Wilbur K. Miller.

In essence, this means that Judge Letts may take punitive action through contempt proceedings to force a cleanup in the union.

The appellate judges said they realized the desirability of an early transition from court supervision to normal organizational management.

Collection Of Taxes Will Begin On June 15

LISBON—County Treasurer Vincent C. Judge said today that statements for last-half real estate taxes for 1958 will be mailed about June 15. The collection will close July 15, after which time a penalty will be added.

The owner as of Jan. 1, is obligated for the full tax year.

By law, the collection dates are Dec. 20 for the first half and June 20 for the second half.

However, the opening and closing of any collection is subject to the delivery of the tax duplicates by the county auditor, Judge said.

Tax statements are mailed as an aid to collection. Failure of the statement to reach a property owner gives him no legal defense against penalties, Judge said.

Firing Seen With Assent Of Governor

Beaver Politician Denies Shakedown Of Road Contractors

HARRISBURG (AP) — Samuel G. Neff, fired from his $12,500-a-year post as manager of the State Workmen's Insurance Fund because of alleged Highways Department irregularities in Beaver County, claims he was "tried and convicted in the newspapers."

Neff, long-time political leader and former Beaver County Democratic chairman, spoke out after learning of his dismissal Tuesday by William L. Batt Jr., labor and industry secretary.

He promised comment on Batts action today.

It was indicated the dismissal by Batt had the full consent of Gov. David L. Lawrence, who only yesterday said he would recommend Neff's firing "if it is justified."

The dismissal followed accusations in a report by Republican Aud. Gen. Charles C. Smith that Neff forced political contributions from contractors who leased highway equipment in the county.

Neff said Smith "is wrong in his accusations."

The report claims the shakedown of the road machinery owners and highway builders doing business with the county netted Neff's political organization 5 per cent of their gross receipts from 1955 through 1958.

Batt told Neff in a letter that he was being dismissed immediately because the charges "reflect derogatorily upon your ability to continue in public office."

But Batt emphasized that the dismissal was in no way a reflection on Neff's performance as head of the insurance fund.

Meantime, Beaver County Dist. Atty. Richard P. Steward said he wanted to study Smith's report thoroughly before deciding whether to file formal charges against Neff.

Steward said he would make the study "as soon as possible."

Batt said he would decide later on whether to retain Robert Yoho, a Neff aide, on the insurance fund payroll.

Highlandtown Lake Project To Be Pushed

The Ohio Wildlife Council at Columbus has announced plans to further the development of the $225,000 Highlandtown Lake project.

According to a release, the council "has given the green light to have plans and specifications drawn for the 175-acre lake" near Wellsville. The council also announced further developments in proposed lakes at Auburn Marsh, Geauga County, and another near Chillicothe, Ross County. All the lakes will be built by the Ohio Division of Wildlife.

Aside from serving the public for fishing, boating and swimming, the surrounding land will be available for public hunting.

The lake project has been an "on-again, off-again" affair for several years. The project was reported "washed up" in the summer of 1957 but was revived again when the state started purchasing more land.

Several Wellsville residents and civic groups have been pushing the project. A snag was hit about two years ago when one of the land owners at the lake site along Route 39 refused to sell. The state wanted to purchase the entire acreage but the man would sell only that covered by water.

Proposed plans call for a dam to be built at the southern end of the lake, that nearest Wellsville.

Supt. S. E. Daw of Wellsville had an appointment this month with Gov. Michael DiSalle to discuss the project. He is one of the influential backers of the project.

NEW CUMBERLAND — Mayor Albert (Jakie) Fuccy received his fifth consecutive two-year term in Tuesday's municipal non-partisan election.

Voters also elected four councilmen — including two incumbents—in the biennial election, according to the complete but unofficial tally.

Mayor Fuccy, operator of a hauling and excavating firm, easily defeated two other mayoralty candidates — Sam Minesinger, operator of a Ridge Ave. confectionery, and William (Bill) Yorko, a brick company employe.

The mayoralty vote was:

Fuccy	323
Minesinger	150
Yorko	140

Incumbent councilmen returned were Elmer Swearingen in the Second Ward, and Welty M. Vulgamore Jr. in the Third Ward, both getting four-year terms.

State's Road Engineers Go Back To Work

Crippling Highway Construction Strike Ends After 2 Weeks

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Operating engineers—the men who handle the big road-building machines—return to work today after a two-week strike that crippled highway construction throughout most of Ohio.

The strike ended Tuesday night with agreement on a new two-year contract for an estimated 8,000 members of Local 18, Operating Engineers Union.

Federal Mediator H. J. Montoney said no details of the settlement will not be announced until the union membership votes on contract ratification. That may not come until the union's statewide meeting here June 21.

The Highway Department said the strike tied up 298 of its 375 new construction projects, involving more than 372 million dollars. It also affected airport construction and work on some housing projects.

It was the first strike by operating engineers in Ohio since 1935.

The contract dispute paralyzed road-building in 76 of the state's 88 counties, although there were cattered settlements with the union by individual construction firms.

Wellsville Boy Injured When Struck By Car

Fellow-Resident's Auto Hits Youth In Steubenville Area

A 8-year-old Wellsville boy is in "serious" condition today with injuries received when struck by a car driven by a Wellsville resident while he was walking across Route 7 near Steubenville Tuesday night at 9:10.

Charles McDowell, son of Mr and Mrs. Charles McDowell, 1023 Center St., was hit by a south bound car driven by Mrs. Matilda Pullie, 42, of Johnson Pl. at Pottery Addition about a mile north of Steubenville, according to the Wintersville State Highway Patrol.

The youth was taken to the Ohio Valley Hospital at Steubenville by a passing motorist. He suffered a laceration of the left hip and scalp, abrasions of the chest and ruptured spleen.

The youth had been visiting an aunt, Mrs. Andy Watas of Pottery Addition. He reportedly was playing with some other children when the accident happened.

Three Toronto area residents were injured in an accident about

Appellate Court Unanimous

Court Armed With Power To Enforce Hoffa Cleanup

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Court of Appeals today armed U.S. Federal District Court with powers to enforce its cleanup orders on President James R. Hoffa and other officers of the Teamsters union.

In a unanimous decision, the appellate court said Dist. Judge F. Dickenson Letts was within his rights in modifying a consent order which terminated litigation to bar Hoffa from taking office.

Under the order, Hoffa was allowed to take office but a three-member board of monitors was set up to watch over the union's affairs and make recommendations for restoring democracy to the union.

In its opinion today, the appellate court said the recommendations of the monitors are not self-enforcing, but that they may go to Judge Letts for orders putting them into effect.

If Hoffa and the other Teamsters officials fail to comply with recommendations, the appellate court said, the monitors may report this fact to Judge Letts.

"The court, after affording a hearing to the defendant, may take any action necessary within the scope of its decrees," Judge Charles Fahy said in an opinion concurred in by Judges Henry W. Edgerton and Wilbur K. Miller.

In essence, this means that Judge Letts may take punitive action through contempt proceedings to force a cleanup in the union.

The appellate judges said they realized the desirability of an early transition from court supervision to normal organizational management.

Firing Seen With Assent Of Governor

Beaver Politician Denies Shakedown Of Road Contractors

HARRISBURG (AP) — Samuel G. Neff, fired from his $12,500-a-year post as manager of the State Workmen's Insurance Fund because of alleged Highways Department irregularities in Beaver County, claims he was "tried and convicted in the newspapers."

Neff, long-time political leader and former Beaver County Democratic chairman, spoke out after learning of his dismissal Tuesday by William L. Batt Jr., labor and industry secretary.

He promised comment on Batts action today.

It was indicated the dismissal by Batt had the full consent of Gov. David L. Lawrence, who only yesterday said he would recommend Neff's firing "if it is justified."

The dismissal followed accusations in a report by Republican Aud. Gen. Charles C. Smith that Neff forced political contributions from contractors who leased highway equipment in the county.

Neff said Smith "is wrong in his accusations."

The report claims the shakedown of the road machinery owners and highway builders doing business with the county netted Neff's political organization 5 per cent of their gross receipts from 1955 through 1958.

Batt told Neff in a letter that he was being dismissed immediately because the charges "reflect derogatorily upon your ability to continue in public office."

But Batt emphasized that the dismissal was in no way a reflection on Neff's performance as head of the insurance fund.

Meantime, Beaver County Dist. Atty. Richard P. Steward said he wanted to study Smith's report thoroughly before deciding whether to file formal charges against Neff.

Steward said he would make the study "as soon as possible."

Batt said he would decide later on whether to retain Robert Yoho, a Neff aide, on the insurance fund payroll.

Highlandtown Lake Project To Be Pushed

The Ohio Wildlife Council at Columbus has announced plans to further the development of the $225,000 Highlandtown Lake project.

According to a release, the council "has given the green light to have plans and specifications drawn for the 175-acre lake" near Wellsville. The council also announced further developments in proposed lakes at Auburn Marsh, Geauga County, and another near Chillicothe, Ross County. All the lakes will be built by the Ohio Division of Wildlife.

Aside from serving the public for fishing, boating and swimming, the surrounding land will be available for public hunting.

The lake project has been an "on-again, off-again" affair for several years. The project was reported "washed up" in the summer of 1957 but was revived again when the state started purchasing more land.

Several Wellsville residents and civic groups have been pushing the project. A snag was hit about two years ago when one of the land owners at the lake site along Route 39 refused to sell. The state wanted to purchase the entire acreage but the man would sell only that covered by water.

Proposed plans call for a dam to be built at the southern end of the lake, that nearest Wellsville.

Supt. S. E. Daw of Wellsville had an appointment this month with Gov. Michael DiSalle to discuss the project. He is one of the influential backers of the project.

Politics Is A Turning Wheel

The two men who are creating the image of the Republican party in the next presidential campaign—Dwight Eisenhower and Richard Nixon—agree that the whole thing should be based on a sound dollar.

That was their message to a money-raising Republican meeting in Washington this week. It has been President Eisenhower's message throughout 1959, beginning with his budget message last January.

It is the Republican party's best bet for a clean break with the political opposition on a fundamental issue, and the two top issue-makers in the party are hammering on it. If they work at it, they can make the opposition sweat.

The opposition, in this instance, is not old-line Democrats but all politicians in Congress and elsewhere, including the labor unions, whose trademark is more spending, more taxing and more deficits.

These are the people in the United States who are identified in one way or another with the great dollar-sign illusion—that the easy way out is to keep taking the value out of money because the ordinary run of people are too foolish to notice what is happening to the dollar's buying power.

THE ILLUSION can be carried along indefinitely by multiplying the number of dollars in circulation. The first people to notice that they have been scallywagged are savers and investors, then pensioners and fixed-salary earners and finally the people who must go to the public for buying power, like schoolteachers and public employes.

But their cries of protest and wails of agony are drowned out by the clanging of the inflationary cash register as wage rates keep climbing in frantic pursuite of prices.

The dollar-sign illusion has been around a long time and is still intact in most places. It is having a gala exhibition in the securities market, for example, and is scheduled for a spectacular showing in steel negotiations, if everything runs off according to form.

There comes an end to all things, however, and this is what President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon are counting on. Politics is a turning wheel that never stops. Eventually, everything that has happened before happens again.

THE PUBLIC reacts sooner or later against what has been, in favor of something that will be better, and the public is not as enchanted by inflation as it used to be. President Eisenhower recalled in a recent speech that when he was a young lieutenant he bought an insurance policy to protect his bride in the event of his death. It was of a size to represent an estate for a military careerist.

But when the policy became collectible, the sum had dwindled to a point where it represented no value of importance. That is inflation. Millions of Americans have learned all about it the hard way. They are astonished when people who should know better say it is a matter of no consequence.

To them, anyone who says a shrinking dollar is of no consequence is demented. There may be enough Americans who feel this way by 1960 to make sound money as vibrant an issue as it was when the Republicans won presidential elections against William Jennings Bryan on the sound-money issue.

Bryanism is still with us. The party that gave the boy orator a home, a platform and a following is still reaping the whirlwind of his oratory. The political wheel is still turning.

Ohio Has Plenty Of Company

While Ohio's tax picture continues to fall into place piece by piece to the accompaniment of screams of protest, it is some slight comfort to know that the state has plenty of company.

Never have so many sessions of the legislatures in so many states buckled down to the same chore in the same year. And never has there been such a close resemblance among the results of legislative sessions.

Cigaret smokers, corporations, liquor drinkers, gasoline users, motorists in general, sales tax payers and income earners have been bearing the brunt of the states' rising money burden. If Ohioans need something to be thankful for while whimpering about heavier taxes, they can be thankful that they do not live in Colorado, Iowa, Montana, New York and South Carolina, where income taxes have been raised, or in Massachusetts, New York, South Carolina and Utah, where tax collectors now have withholding taxes to make sure they collect their revenue at the source. North Carolina, Oklahoma and Wisconsin are considering withholding taxes.

PENNSYLVANIA and Washington have increased their sales taxes. Rate boosts are under consideration in Illinois, Maine, Missouri and Oklahoma. New York and West Virginia already have boosted gasoline taxes, and California, Massachusetts, Missouri, New Hampshire and Pennsylvania are thinking about it.

Seven states have hit cigarette smokers harder and four more are considering the same thing.

Those who are complaining in a vein of anger that makes it sound as if Ohio were peculiarly afflicted with the prospect of new tax burdens are being provincial in their tax misery. It is a widespread affliction. The same complaints being made here could be taped and reproduced in fully half the states without sounding out of place or off key.

MEANWHILE, as a sidelight on the question of the year, don't forget to make the cashier give you all the Ohio sales tax receipts you are entitled to. They are the only assurance an Ohioan has that the tax added to his bill and collected on the spot by the merchant, proprietor or what have you is being passed on to the state treasury.

If Ohio were getting all the money that purveyors of sales tax receipts are collecting in its name, it wouldn't need so many new taxes. The cheapest, most direct and most effectual tax reform that could be made here in 1959 would be for about four million Ohioans to demand a receipt for every penny of state sales tax they are paying.

It would be the equivalent of a brand new tax.

What Would Tom Fawcett Think?

Thursday will mark the birthday anniversary of a hardworking Irish-born pioneer whose modest ambitions, tempered by Quaker practicality, led him to the Ohio River where he laid out the present city of East Liverpool.

Thomas Fawcett, born in Ireland June 11, 1747, no doubt dreamed that his little village would become a sizable community, spreading up along the hillsides which were covered with virgin timber when he came here in 1796.

But he could not have imagined the complexities of atomic power, the bustle of traffic, the immensity of industry, the comforts of modern homes or the hundreds of other commonplace aspects of today's living in this district.

Tom Fawcett died in 1820, disappointed in his hopes to see a town grow from the settlement which almost succumbed to the weeds before it began to buregeon in the 1830's.

The "good old Quaker gentleman" might even be disappointed in today's city, were he to compare its accomplishments with its potentials. But is more than likely he would gratefully acknowledge the progress made over the years and salute the energy and hopes of those who are working to make the former "Fawcettstown" an even better community.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

There's one thing about subway train special to race track: It puts hoss players in a hole before they get to the course! And New York experiment will definitely settle question whether a man can be a sardine and a turf addict at the same time. The idea is to popularize races with the public. Etiquette rules are required to clear up these problems:

1. Should a man who has completed his selections at home get up and give his seat to a fan who still has to figure out what to play?

2. Can turf and subway officials co-operate in the fight to make a man blocking doorway, while reading charts, get out and let others in?

Test run of subway race-track special held the other day showed the train was a distance performer and not a sprinter. Time was so slow that passengers asked if the train was in a workout. If a "local" had finished first, the special train riders would have claimed a foul.

When Aqueduct opens there will be no special back to the city. Players will have to take regular subway trains without "Losers and squawkers first!" rule. (If there is a philanthropist who really knows a worthy purpose he will establish a fund for a LOSERS' SPECIAL BACK FROM RACES.)

CALIFORNIA BAKERY-WAGON driver delivering bread to a housewife fell in love with her. Mutual family introductions resulted in switch of wives and formal marriages. Was it white or rye?

Why doesn't some TV commercial for a cake mix ask, "Are you COOKING more and enjoying it less?"

New York park commissioner Bob (Kayo) Moses has been upheld by court in barring of free Shakespeare from Central Park. Moses is unbeatable. We hear Casey Stengel is trying to buy him from Mayor Wagner. With him on the team, the Yankees couldn't lose. He would ignore the three strike call, veto decisions at first base and decree that his bunts were homers. He might even abolish the enemy bull pen and tell opposition fielders that great catches against the fence didn't count.

VOICE OF FIRESTONE on the air for 30 years and a top-class program is being given up on TV because its hour has been sold elsewhere. A culture hour, with the outstanding opera stars, can't get the right rating unless the performers come on by bronco, stage-coach or police car. . . .

Washington will buy frozen eggs to halt collapse in egg industry. It was either this or federal control of hens. . . .

We can never understand why at some honorary degree ceremony a surprised recipient doesn't forget himself, stand up and exclaim, "WHO, ME?"

The Rev. Charles Otis Gill, retired pastor of a little church in Virginia, died last week. He had spent almost 70 of his 90 years as a missionary and minister, a calm, soft-spoken spiritually dedicated man, few people knowing that he had been one of football's all-time "greats," a rough, tough tackle on Yale teams that between 1885 and 1889 won 54 games and lost but one.

Private Club Era Passes

By Jim Doyle

New York City once had more than 100 private clubs. Today there are about 30.

In Chicago, it is said only half in jest, that even a Democrat can get into the ultra-conservative Union League Club these days because there aren't enough Republicans left in the Windy City to keep it going.

In San Francisco, a few years ago, the ebullient, extroverted Press Club, with a youthful and growing membership, inadequate facilities and money in the bank, merged with the conservative Union League Club, which had an old and contracting membership, excellent facilities and a burdensome mortgage.

And in Boston, the veritable Athens of clubs, the University Club, organized in 1892 has for five years found it necessary to offer separate locker-room facilities. Women may now be members.

All over the land, in Dallas, in Los Angeles, in Atlanta, the voice of the female is raised in precincts in which the sight of a woman would once have brought on a mass attack of apoplexy.

THERE ARE CLUBS and clubs, of course. The Manhattan telephone directory lists between 600 and 700 of them, including the Modern Gents Sociable Club. But for the purposes of this essay, a club may be defined as the sort of voluntary social organization whose members are likely to be found in a Who's Who biographical sketch.

This type of institution, whose customs and traditions once seemed only slightly less immutable than the sun's habit of rising in the east, has been changing in the last quarter of a century.

The depression began it. Hundreds of clubs faced the difficult choice of letting down the membership bars or folding up. Some had not even that choice. Simply and quietly, but always with good taste, they gasped their last. Big city skylines are dotted with sky-citadels of opulent clubs. Some are motels, some are office buildings and one in Chicago is a downtown campus of Loyola University.

The changes have been accelerated since World War II by the flight to the suburbs, by inflation, by that ol' debbil income tax and, most of all, by the growing social equality and commercialization of American life.

There are exceptions, of course, some of the older clubs and especially those solidly anchored in conservatism, wealth and social prestige, have made few concessions to changing times.

WOMEN HAVE passed through the sacred portals of the Pacific Union Club in San Francisco once, and once only — when the club celebrated its centennial several years ago. The Philadelphia Club, by comparison, is wildly liberal. It has admitted women on an average of about once every 30 years. The Knickerbocker Club in New York has a firm "no women at any time" policy.

But the vast majority of these once exclusively male strongholds have yielded to aggressive femininity. In few of them, however, does the distaff side enjoy equal status with the male.

Most of them limit privileges to wives and unmarried daughters of members. (Boston's University Club is a notable exception. In 1954, membership was thrown open to any women who had spent two years at an accredited university.)

Albert Shore, manager of the Tennis and Racket Club, also in Boston, says, "We have not opened our doors to women but we have made certain arrangements for them."

The arrangements include a special side entrance and the privilege of using certain, but not all, tables in the main dining room. Women may not use the main entrance except on dance nights but they may never, never play tennis or racquets.

Such arrangements are fairly typical. The males have not raised the white flag; they have merely retreated to prepared positions.

THE INTRUSION of business life upon club life is significant. Probably not even the most hidebound of the ancient regime would deny that clubs have always been an important source of the social oil that lubricates commercial wheels. But the attitude that "the club" is merely another business asset is become more prevalent.

The old guard deplores this but sadly admits that it is a factor that keeps many clubs going. With steadily rising costs making club membership more and more expensive, many clubs would find their memberships sharply reduced if businessmen could not list club expenses as deductible items on April 15.

Rising costs have also forced many clubs to rent facilities to outsiders for banquets and other functions.

If the growth of suburbia has somewhat put the squeeze on "city clubs" it has boomed country clubs. It is said that a determined golfer could play the 90 miles from Chicago to Milwaukee without finding himself in the rough too often.

Another type of club that is doing fine these days is the enormous athletic club, such as the New York Athletic Club and the San Francisco Olympic Club. The Olympic Club no longer fields a football team, but does have a championshp golf course.

Only Messenger Boys

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Premier Nikita Khrushchev has proved his point: that only the top men — the "heavyweights" — can call the shots or really settle anything and that their foreign ministers are only their messenger boys.

The month-old Geneva meeting of the ministers — American, Soviet, British, French — has become almost farcical. Four weeks of talking and nothing accomplished, nothing settled.

Dead-pan Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko can't agree, decide or yield on anything unless his boss, Khrushchev, says so. So far Khrushchev has only told him to be polite, stand still, and keep his mouth open.

The lead on The Associated Press story out of Geneva after Tuesday's session — as fruitless as any which preceded it— was like a pathetic footnote on a shadow dance.

It said: "The Western foreign ministers showed deep concern today that the Geneva conference may collapse unless Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev intervenes quickly to break the deadlock."

That has been true from the beginning. Nobody — certainly not the Western ministers — had any illusion to the contrary. Everything depended on Khrushchev. Gromyko was just his frontman.

The only reason he permitted the ministers' meeting at all was because the West — principally Eisenhower — had insisted on it as a necessary preliminary to a later summit meeting between Eisenhower and Khrushchev.

Eisenhower actually laid down two conditions for a summit conference. First, the foreign ministers must meet; second, they must show some progress, which would mean agreement, or concessions, on something.

But there had always been an underlying irony in the President's requirements: any concession or agreement by the Soviets at Geneva would actually be a concession by Khrushchev which he could just as well have made at a summit meeting.

Nevertheless, Eisenhower had a point of his own in the two conditions he laid down. It was like telling Khrushchev: if you really mean business, prove it at Geneva before you and I get together; otherwise, I'd just have to hope you meant business.

Yet from the beginning, Khrushchev has created a dilemma for Eisenhower.

A ministers' meeting could break up without any agreement —Khrushchev could be using it to prove it was a waste of time for anyone but the top men to talk— but that would not necessarily prove he couldn't do business at the summit.

If Khrushchev, who thinks so little of the ministers' meeting, now lets Gromyko make a concession before the ministers break up, it will probably be only to deprive Eisenhower of any argument against meeting him at the summit.

Adenauer Retains Leadership In Crisis

LONDON

The right man at the right time has affected the destiny of many a nation, including our own United States. So today there has emerged coincidentally a man of popular strength in Germany, in France, in Britain and in America, respectively. This reflects not so much a blind faith in personalities but a fundamental yearning for national stability. It is the basis for the support given to democratically chosen leaders.

David Lawrence

To a remarkable extent at the moment, each one of these Western leaders has, in his own way, won the confidence of his people. There may be bickerings among the political parties and an impatience at times as economic cycles interfere with the political progress of the party in power. There may be differences of opinion as to how far the dominance of individuals may affect the democratic process. But the fact is that the emergency makes the man and realism demands continuity.

Just as the American people in a time of crisis broke tradition and elected Franklin D. Roosevelt for a third and a fourth term in the midst of a world war, so Americans today must judge patiently and realistically the decision of Dr. Konrad Adenauer not to give up the chancellorship of the West German Republic but to continue to serve out the remainder of his term, which runs until the autumn of 1961.

AT ANY TIME, of course, between now and the election that a majority of the Parliament wants to remove Dr. Adenauer and put a new chancellor into office, it has the constitutional right to do so. This is not likely to happen, because Dr. Adenauer has the support of the people. His own party would not risk the political cleavages that might come from embarking on such a course.

All this having been said, it is important to examine just what has been motivating the chancellor in his recent maneuvers. First, he announced that he would resign and accept the presidency. He had in mind that, like the case of De Gaulle in France, it might be possible for the powers of the presidency to be enlarged so as to exert a continuing influence on foreign policy.

The plan looked good but Dr. Adenauer had counted on the selection of his finance minister, Franz Etzel, as chancellor. There is harmony of thought and a deep understanding between the two men. Obviously Dr. Adenauer expected to be able to continue to function alongside the new chancellor.

What went wrong was the upsurge of sentiment among the politicians in favor of Ludwig Erhard, vice chancellor and economics minister, as the logical successor. The canvass showed the party of Dr. Adenauer to be split.

NOBODY CAN EXPLAIN just what the differences between Dr. Adenauer and Mr. Erhard really amount to. Some say Mr. Erhard would be too conciliatory toward the Soviets. This is vigorously denied by his supporters. Others say that Mr. Etzel is better balanced than Mr. Erhard and would work much better with Dr. Adenauer.

Whatever the conflicts may be, Dr. Adenauer, as the party leader, has the right to change his mind and stay as chancellor. Originally, because of his advanced age—he is 83 now—it was thought best for him gradually to release the reins so that the party would be able to train a new man in the chancellorship two years before the 1961 election.

This is a good argument but it is outweighed now in Dr. Adenauer's mind by his desire to keep a firm grip on foreign policy in the critical months ahead as a summit meeting approaches and the whole future of German reunification is up for momentous consideration.

DR. ADENAUER may change his mind again, perhaps sometime in 1960, and still pave the way for training of a successor before the 1961 election. But today he thinks it is better to stand firm than to permit a change. He is merely adopting an American slogan of political campaigns: "Don't swap horses in midstream."

Naturally, Dr. Adenauer's decision reversing an earlier plan of his own has caused some confusion at home and abroad. There is a plain manifestation of impatience on the part of many West Germans.

Other European countries have not hesitated through their press to criticize what he has done but it's strictly an internal matter after all, and as long as Dr. Adenauer is in good health—and he seems to be as vigorous as ever mentally—he will be the acknowledged leader of his country. He represents stability, patriotism, firmness, courage and, above all, the craving of his people for a reunification of East and West Germany.

Purely Personal

Another iced tea season brings to mind an incident related by a friend who drinks iced tea the year 'round. He was told by a waiter that he could not have iced tea because it was out of season. He ordered hot tea and a glassful of ice. While the waiter watched, astonished, he poured the hot tea over the ice and voila! Iced tea!

Until someone uses a funnier line, Jack Carter's quip about girl-chasing husbands—that dogs chase cars but never learn to drive—will be my favorite for 1959.

If I were mayor of a city, I'd urge my policemen to keep watch for cars with out-of-state licenses and ask the occupants if they need help in finding their way through town. It happened to me once in Buffalo, N.Y., and I've always thought kindly since then of both the city and the animal.

It is my impression that whatever last winter was not good for, it did something to stimulate the growth of peonies.

It would be a lucky break for a job applicant to be told by his first interviewer what kind of an impression he made so he could correct his faults before the second interview.

I am annoyed by the failure of commentators who tell how heavly big incomes are taxed to point out that this has been offset to a great extent by the addition of prerogatives, such as company-owned automobiles and houses.

I wish electric shaver companies would standardize cords to get rid of all that tangle in the bathroom. There's no place for the woman to hang up their stockings.

The New York Yankees are turning out to be the class of the American League after all, but it's nice to know the lumpies had their interval in the sun while the perennial champions were slumping.

My personal advice to graduates, based on a lifetime of observation: If you didn't pick the right father, try to make it up by picking the right father-in-law.

If given the slightest encouragement, I will argue that all taxes in this country should be collected by the federal government and allocated to local government for distribution, thereby having the advantage of supreme authority to get the money and homegrown authority to spend it.

James Thurber's account of his working lifetime with Harold Ross, who started and developed The New Yorker, reminds me of the way a grain of sand produces a pearl in an oyster — by irritation. Ross was the irritant that produced some of the generation's best writing.

I find no evidence to change my mind that this country needs better driving instruction more than it needs better streets and highways.

It is my opinion that labor relations need psychiatry more than so-called experts who louse it up with inability to understand why employers and employes square off against each other; one side is trying to assert dominance; the other side is resisting. It's that simple.

It has dawned on me belatedly, in the light of the many years that have led up to it, that a year from now I may have to show up at two commencements at the same time and had better put in a vacation bid early, because they will be at some distance from where I ordinarily aim to be in June.

Everything that has happened in Geneva, as far as I am concerned, sums up the feeling of despair about getting anywhere in negotiations with the Soviet Union. This could be the most serious thing that has happened since World War II, because it could produce a state of mind that would make even war seem better than endless frustration.

These are the people in the United States who are identified in one way or another with the great dollar-sign illusion—that the easy way out is to keep taking the value out of money because the ordinary run of people are too foolish to notice what is happening to the dollar's buying power.

THE ILLUSION can be carried along indefinitely by multiplying the number of dollars in circulation. The first people to notice that they have been scallywagged are savers and investors, then pensioners and fixed-salary earners and finally the people who must go to the public for buying power, like schoolteachers and public employes.

But their cries of protest and wails of agony are drowned out by the clanging of the inflationary cash register as wage rates keep climbing in frantic pursuite of prices.

The dollar-sign illusion has been around a long time and is still intact in most places. It is having a gala exhibition in the securities market, for example, and is scheduled for a spectacular showing in steel negotiations, if everything runs off according to form.

There comes an end to all things, however, and this is what President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon are counting on. Politics is a turning wheel that never stops. Eventually, everything that has happened before happens again.

THE PUBLIC reacts sooner or later against what has been, in favor of something that will be better, and the public is not as enchanted by inflation as it used to be. President Eisenhower recalled in a recent speech that when he was a young lieutenant he bought an insurance policy to protect his bride in the event of his death. It was of a size to represent an estate for a military careerist.

But when the policy became collectible, the sum had dwindled to a point where it represented no value of importance. That is inflation. Millions of Americans have learned all about it the hard way. They are astonished when people who should know better say it is a matter of no consequence.

To them, anyone who says a shrinking dollar is of no consequence is demented. There may be enough Americans who feel this way by 1960 to make sound money as vibrant an issue as it was when the Republicans won presidential elections against William Jennings Bryan on the sound-money issue.

Bryanism is still with us. The party that gave the boy orator a home, a platform and a following is still reaping the whirlwind of his oratory. The political wheel is still turning.

Ohio Has Plenty Of Company

While Ohio's tax picture continues to fall into place piece by piece to the accompaniment of screams of protest, it is some slight comfort to know that the state has plenty of company.

Never have so many sessions of the legislatures in so many states buckled down to the same chore in the same year. And never has there been such a close resemblance among the results of legislative sessions.

Cigaret smokers, corporations, liquor drinkers, gasoline users, motorists in general, sales tax payers and income earners have been bearing the brunt of the states' rising money burden. If Ohioans need something to be thankful for while whimpering about heavier taxes, they can be thankful that they do not live in Colorado, Iowa, Montana, New York and South Carolina, where income taxes have been raised, or in Massachusetts, New York, South Carolina and Utah, where tax collectors now have withholding taxes to make sure they collect their revenue at the source. North Carolina, Oklahoma and Wisconsin are considering withholding taxes.

PENNSYLVANIA and Washington have increased their sales taxes. Rate boosts are under consideration in Illinois, Maine, Missouri and Oklahoma. New York and West Virginia already have boosted gasoline taxes, and California, Massachusetts, Missouri, New Hampshire and Pennsylvania are thinking about it.

Seven states have hit cigarette smokers harder and four more are considering the same thing.

Those who are complaining in a vein of anger that makes it sound as if Ohio were peculiarly afflicted with the prospect of new tax burdens are being provincial in their tax misery. It is a widespread affliction. The same complaints being made here could be taped and reproduced in fully half the states without sounding out of place or off key.

MEANWHILE, as a sidelight on the question of the year, don't forget to make the cashier give you all the Ohio sales tax receipts you are entitled to. They are the only assurance an Ohioan has that the tax added to his bill and collected on the spot by the merchant, proprietor or what have you is being passed on to the state treasury.

If Ohio were getting all the money that purveyors of sales tax receipts are collecting in its name, it wouldn't need so many new taxes. The cheapest, most direct and most effectual tax reform that could be made here in 1959 would be for about four million Ohioans to demand a receipt for every penny of state sales tax they are paying.

It would be the equivalent of a brand new tax.

What Would Tom Fawcett Think?

Thursday will mark the birthday anniversary of a hardworking Irish-born pioneer whose modest ambitions, tempered by Quaker practicality, led him to the Ohio River where he laid out the present city of East Liverpool.

Thomas Fawcett, born in Ireland June 11, 1747, no doubt dreamed that his little village would become a sizable community, spreading up along the hillsides which were covered with virgin timber when he came here in 1796.

But he could not have imagined the complexities of atomic power, the bustle of traffic, the immensity of industry, the comforts of modern homes or the hundreds of other commonplace aspects of today's living in this district.

Tom Fawcett died in 1820, disappointed in his hopes to see a town grow from the settlement which almost succumbed to the weeds before it began to buregeon in the 1830's.

The "good old Quaker gentleman" might even be disappointed in today's city, were he to compare its accomplishments with its potentials. But is more than likely he would gratefully acknowledge the progress made over the years and salute the energy and hopes of those who are working to make the former "Fawcettstown" an even better community.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

There's one thing about subway train special to race track: It puts hoss players in a hole before they get to the course! And New York experiment will definitely settle question whether a man can be a sardine and a turf addict at the same time. The idea is to popularize races with the public. Etiquette rules are required to clear up these problems:

1. Should a man who has completed his selections at home get up and give his seat to a fan who still has to figure out what to play?

2. Can turf and subway officials co-operate in the fight to make a man blocking doorway, while reading charts, get out and let others in?

Test run of subway race-track special held the other day showed the train was a distance performer and not a sprinter. Time was so slow that passengers asked if the train was in a workout. If a "local" had finished first, the special train riders would have claimed a foul.

When Aqueduct opens there will be no special back to the city. Players will have to take regular subway trains without "Losers and squawkers first!" rule. (If there is a philanthropist who really knows a worthy purpose he will establish a fund for a LOSERS' SPECIAL BACK FROM RACES.)

CALIFORNIA BAKERY-WAGON driver delivering bread to a housewife fell in love with her. Mutual family introductions resulted in switch of wives and formal marriages. Was it white or rye?

Why doesn't some TV commercial for a cake mix ask, "Are you COOKING more and enjoying it less?"

New York park commissioner Bob (Kayo) Moses has been upheld by court in barring of free Shakespeare from Central Park. Moses is unbeatable. We hear Casey Stengel is trying to buy him from Mayor Wagner. With him on the team, the Yankees couldn't lose. He would ignore the three strike call, veto decisions at first base and decree that his bunts were homers. He might even abolish the enemy bull pen and tell opposition fielders that great catches against the fence didn't count.

VOICE OF FIRESTONE on the air for 30 years and a top-class program is being given up on TV because its hour has been sold elsewhere. A culture hour, with the outstanding opera stars, can't get the right rating unless the performers come on by bronco, stage-coach or police car. . . .

Washington will buy frozen eggs to halt collapse in egg industry. It was either this or federal control of hens. . . .

We can never understand why at some honorary degree ceremony a surprised recipient doesn't forget himself, stand up and exclaim, "WHO, ME?"

The Rev. Charles Otis Gill, retired pastor of a little church in Virginia, died last week. He had spent almost 70 of his 90 years as a missionary and minister, a calm, soft-spoken spiritually dedicated man, few people knowing that he had been one of football's all-time "greats," a rough, tough tackle on Yale teams that between 1885 and 1889 won 54 games and lost but one.

Private Club Era Passes

By Jim Doyle

New York City once had more than 100 private clubs. Today there are about 30.

In Chicago, it is said only half in jest, that even a Democrat can get into the ultra-conservative Union League Club these days because there aren't enough Republicans left in the Windy City to keep it going.

In San Francisco, a few years ago, the ebullient, extroverted Press Club, with a youthful and growing membership, inadequate facilities and money in the bank, merged with the conservative Union League Club, which had an old and contracting membership, excellent facilities and a burdensome mortgage.

And in Boston, the veritable Athens of clubs, the University Club, organized in 1892 has for five years found it necessary to offer separate locker-room facilities. Women may now be members.

All over the land, in Dallas, in Los Angeles, in Atlanta, the voice of the female is raised in precincts in which the sight of a woman would once have brought on a mass attack of apoplexy.

THERE ARE CLUBS and clubs, of course. The Manhattan telephone directory lists between 600 and 700 of them, including the Modern Gents Sociable Club. But for the purposes of this essay, a club may be defined as the sort of voluntary social organization whose members are likely to be found in a Who's Who biographical sketch.

This type of institution, whose customs and traditions once seemed only slightly less immutable than the sun's habit of rising in the east, has been changing in the last quarter of a century.

The depression began it. Hundreds of clubs faced the difficult choice of letting down the membership bars or folding up. Some had not even that choice. Simply and quietly, but always with good taste, they gasped their last. Big city skylines are dotted with sky-citadels of opulent clubs. Some are motels, some are office buildings and one in Chicago is a downtown campus of Loyola University.

The changes have been accelerated since World War II by the flight to the suburbs, by inflation, by that ol' debbil income tax and, most of all, by the growing social equality and commercialization of American life.

There are exceptions, of course, some of the older clubs and especially those solidly anchored in conservatism, wealth and social prestige, have made few concessions to changing times.

WOMEN HAVE passed through the sacred portals of the Pacific Union Club in San Francisco once, and once only — when the club celebrated its centennial several years ago. The Philadelphia Club, by comparison, is wildly liberal. It has admitted women on an average of about once every 30 years. The Knickerbocker Club in New York has a firm "no women at any time" policy.

But the vast majority of these once exclusively male strongholds have yielded to aggressive femininity. In few of them, however, does the distaff side enjoy equal status with the male.

Most of them limit privileges to wives and unmarried daughters of members. (Boston's University Club is a notable exception. In 1954, membership was thrown open to any women who had spent two years at an accredited university.)

Albert Shore, manager of the Tennis and Racket Club, also in Boston, says, "We have not opened our doors to women but we have made certain arrangements for them."

The arrangements include a special side entrance and the privilege of using certain, but not all, tables in the main dining room. Women may not use the main entrance except on dance nights but they may never, never play tennis or racquets.

Such arrangements are fairly typical. The males have not raised the white flag; they have merely retreated to prepared positions.

THE INTRUSION of business life upon club life is significant. Probably not even the most hidebound of the ancient regime would deny that clubs have always been an important source of the social oil that lubricates commercial wheels. But the attitude that "the club" is merely another business asset is become more prevalent.

The old guard deplores this but sadly admits that it is a factor that keeps many clubs going. With steadily rising costs making club membership more and more expensive, many clubs would find their memberships sharply reduced if businessmen could not list club expenses as deductible items on April 15.

Rising costs have also forced many clubs to rent facilities to outsiders for banquets and other functions.

If the growth of suburbia has somewhat put the squeeze on "city clubs" it has boomed country clubs. It is said that a determined golfer could play the 90 miles from Chicago to Milwaukee without finding himself in the rough too often.

Another type of club that is doing fine these days is the enormous athletic club, such as the New York Athletic Club and the San Francisco Olympic Club. The Olympic Club no longer fields a football team, but does have a championshp golf course.

Only Messenger Boys

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Premier Nikita Khrushchev has proved his point: that only the top men — the "heavyweights" — can call the shots or really settle anything and that their foreign ministers are only their messenger boys.

The month-old Geneva meeting of the ministers — American, Soviet, British, French — has become almost farcical. Four weeks of talking and nothing accomplished, nothing settled.

Dead-pan Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko can't agree, decide or yield on anything unless his boss, Khrushchev, says so. So far Khrushchev has only told him to be polite, stand still, and keep his mouth open.

The lead on The Associated Press story out of Geneva after Tuesday's session — as fruitless as any which preceded it— was like a pathetic footnote on a shadow dance.

It said: "The Western foreign ministers showed deep concern today that the Geneva conference may collapse unless Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev intervenes quickly to break the deadlock."

That has been true from the beginning. Nobody — certainly not the Western ministers — had any illusion to the contrary. Everything depended on Khrushchev. Gromyko was just his frontman.

The only reason he permitted the ministers' meeting at all was because the West — principally Eisenhower — had insisted on it as a necessary preliminary to a later summit meeting between Eisenhower and Khrushchev.

Eisenhower actually laid down two conditions for a summit conference. First, the foreign ministers must meet; second, they must show some progress, which would mean agreement, or concessions, on something.

But there had always been an underlying irony in the President's requirements: any concession or agreement by the Soviets at Geneva would actually be a concession by Khrushchev which he could just as well have made at a summit meeting.

Nevertheless, Eisenhower had a point of his own in the two conditions he laid down. It was like telling Khrushchev: if you really mean business, prove it at Geneva before you and I get together; otherwise, I'd just have to hope you meant business.

Yet from the beginning, Khrushchev has created a dilemma for Eisenhower.

A ministers' meeting could break up without any agreement —Khrushchev could be using it to prove it was a waste of time for anyone but the top men to talk— but that would not necessarily prove he couldn't do business at the summit.

If Khrushchev, who thinks so little of the ministers' meeting, now lets Gromyko make a concession before the ministers break up, it will probably be only to deprive Eisenhower of any argument against meeting him at the summit.

Adenauer Retains Leadership In Crisis

LONDON

The right man at the right time has affected the destiny of many a nation, including our own United States. So today there has emerged coincidentally a man of popular strength in Germany, in France, in Britain and in America, respectively. This reflects not so much a blind faith in personalities but a fundamental yearning for national stability. It is the basis for the support given to democratically chosen leaders.

David Lawrence

To a remarkable extent at the moment, each one of these Western leaders has, in his own way, won the confidence of his people. There may be bickerings among the political parties and an impatience at times as economic cycles interfere with the political progress of the party in power. There may be differences of opinion as to how far the dominance of individuals may affect the democratic process. But the fact is that the emergency makes the man and realism demands continuity.

Just as the American people in a time of crisis broke tradition and elected Franklin D. Roosevelt for a third and a fourth term in the midst of a world war, so Americans today must judge patiently and realistically the decision of Dr. Konrad Adenauer not to give up the chancellorship of the West German Republic but to continue to serve out the remainder of his term, which runs until the autumn of 1961.

AT ANY TIME, of course, between now and the election that a majority of the Parliament wants to remove Dr. Adenauer and put a new chancellor into office, it has the constitutional right to do so. This is not likely to happen, because Dr. Adenauer has the support of the people. His own party would not risk the political cleavages that might come from embarking on such a course.

All this having been said, it is important to examine just what has been motivating the chancellor in his recent maneuvers. First, he announced that he would resign and accept the presidency. He had in mind that, like the case of De Gaulle in France, it might be possible for the powers of the presidency to be enlarged so as to exert a continuing influence on foreign policy.

The plan looked good but Dr. Adenauer had counted on the selection of his finance minister, Franz Etzel, as chancellor. There is harmony of thought and a deep understanding between the two men. Obviously Dr. Adenauer expected to be able to continue to function alongside the new chancellor.

What went wrong was the upsurge of sentiment among the politicians in favor of Ludwig Erhard, vice chancellor and economics minister, as the logical successor. The canvass showed the party of Dr. Adenauer to be split.

NOBODY CAN EXPLAIN just what the differences between Dr. Adenauer and Mr. Erhard really amount to. Some say Mr. Erhard would be too conciliatory toward the Soviets. This is vigorously denied by his supporters. Others say that Mr. Etzel is better balanced than Mr. Erhard and would work much better with Dr. Adenauer.

Whatever the conflicts may be, Dr. Adenauer, as the party leader, has the right to change his mind and stay as chancellor. Originally, because of his advanced age—he is 83 now—it was thought best for him gradually to release the reins so that the party would be able to train a new man in the chancellorship two years before the 1961 election.

This is a good argument but it is outweighed now in Dr. Adenauer's mind by his desire to keep a firm grip on foreign policy in the critical months ahead as a summit meeting approaches and the whole future of German reunification is up for momentous consideration.

DR. ADENAUER may change his mind again, perhaps sometime in 1960, and still pave the way for training of a successor before the 1961 election. But today he thinks it is better to stand firm than to permit a change. He is merely adopting an American slogan of political campaigns: "Don't swap horses in midstream."

Naturally, Dr. Adenauer's decision reversing an earlier plan of his own has caused some confusion at home and abroad. There is a plain manifestation of impatience on the part of many West Germans.

Other European countries have not hesitated through their press to criticize what he has done but it's strictly an internal matter after all, and as long as Dr. Adenauer is in good health—and he seems to be as vigorous as ever mentally—he will be the acknowledged leader of his country. He represents stability, patriotism, firmness, courage and, above all, the craving of his people for a reunification of East and West Germany.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

Another iced tea season brings to mind an incident related by a friend who drinks iced tea the year 'round. He was told by a waiter that he could not have iced tea because it was out of season. He ordered hot tea and a glassful of ice. While the waiter watched, astonished, he poured the hot tea over the ice and voila! Iced tea!

Until someone uses a funnier line, Jack Carter's quip about girl-chasing husbands—that dogs chase cars but never learn to drive—will be my favorite for 1959.

If I were mayor of a city, I'd urge my policemen to keep watch for cars with out-of-state licenses and ask the occupants if they need help in finding their way through town. It happened to me once in Buffalo, N.Y., and I've always thought kindly since then of both the city and the animal.

It is my impression that whatever last winter was not good for, it did something to stimulate the growth of peonies.

It would be a lucky break for a job applicant to be told by his first interviewer what kind of an impression he made so he could correct his faults before the second interview.

I am annoyed by the failure of commentators who tell how heavly big incomes are taxed to point out that this has been offset to a great extent by the addition of prerogatives, such as company-owned automobiles and houses.

I wish electric shaver companies would standardize cords to get rid of all that tangle in the bathroom. There's no place for the woman to hang up their stockings.

The New York Yankees are turning out to be the class of the American League after all, but it's nice to know the lumpies had their interval in the sun while the perennial champions were slumping.

My personal advice to graduates, based on a lifetime of observation: If you didn't pick the right father, try to make it up by picking the right father-in-law.

If given the slightest encouragement, I will argue that all taxes in this country should be collected by the federal government and allocated to local government for distribution, thereby having the advantage of supreme authority to get the money and homegrown authority to spend it.

James Thurber's account of his working lifetime with Harold Ross, who started and developed The New Yorker, reminds me of the way a grain of sand produces a pearl in an oyster — by irritation. Ross was the irritant that produced some of the generation's best writing.

I find no evidence to change my mind that this country needs better driving instruction more than it needs better streets and highways.

It is my opinion that labor relations need psychiatry more than so-called experts who louse it up with inability to understand why employers and employes square off against each other; one side is trying to assert dominance; the other side is resisting. It's that simple.

It has dawned on me belatedly, in the light of the many years that have led up to it, that a year from now I may have to show up at two commencements at the same time and had better put in a vacation bid early, because they will be at some distance from where I ordinarily aim to be in June.

Everything that has happened in Geneva, as far as I am concerned, sums up the feeling of despair about getting anywhere in negotiations with the Soviet Union. This could be the most serious thing that has happened since World War II, because it could produce a state of mind that would make even war seem better than endless frustration.

stamp redemptions, a major source of revenue for many charitable and religious groups.

Since 1939, redemption of the stamps at 3 per cent of their face value has been permitted as a so-called enforcement measure. Redemptions now are running in excess of five million dollars a year.

The auto license increase vote comes as a result of a virtual promise made on the Senate floor when a bill—now in effect—was under study to increase the state sales tax on gasoline by two cents a gallon.

The promise was made in answer to protests that while the gasoline tax increase provided for a state highway program, it provided no more money for local highway building and repair.

The $5-a-vehicle tax would provide a 20-million - dollar - a - year melon to be split for local street and road purposes.

A major development in Tuesday's legislative session was the failure of a proposal to lower the voting age from 21 to 18 years. With 84 favorable votes needed in the House on the proposed constitutional amendment, the count was 80 yes and 47 no. A move to revive the proposal is due today. Three-fifths of both House and Senate must approve an amendment to the constitution to place it on the ballot.

The House Taxation Committee recommended passage of a Senate-approved bill to make Columbus Day a legal holiday in Ohio. It would permit school boards to dismiss classes on that day.

The committee also recommended passage of a bill to allow husbands, along with widows and children, exemptions up to $10,000 on inheritances. But, no sooner had the committee put surviving husbands on a tax par with widows, but members voted a one per cent jump in all inheritance tax brackets. Estimates are that the tax change will bring the state three to four million dollars a year in new revenue.

The House passed and sent to the Senate a bill to increase from one to two mills the tax on money bet at race tracks to help communities where race tracks operate. Up to a maximum of $20,000 per track, revenue would go to local municipalities and townships for fire and police protection, traffic control and road repair. The present top is $10,000.

The House also passed and sent to the Senate a bill to eliminate a $5 fee for local exhibitors at county fairs. It would not apply to professional exhibitors. The hope of sponsors was that expected passage of the bill would induce fair officials to waive the fee at many of this year's fairs. Most of this year's fairs would be under way before the anticipated new law could become effective.

Bennie A. Parr, a four-year term in the First Ward, and Jacob W. Baxter, a Hancock County sheriff's deputy, two-year term in the Second Ward.

Defeated were Raymond Bailey, Jesse A. Cullen, Joseph M. Burskey and Walter O. Shekey.

The Council vote was:

Parr	106
Bailey	54
Swearingen	114
Cullen	56
Baxter	103
Burskey	68
Vulgamore	141
Shekey	126

Mrs. Mary Lou Wagner, town clerk, said 613 residents voted. The fairly heavy turnout was attributed to the interest in the three-way race for mayor.

Wellsburg and Bethany were other towns in the Northern Panhandle with elections Tuesday.

Mrs. Betty Richmond, Republican, was re-elected city clerk at Wellsburg. The two parties split the four Council seats.

Dr. Wilbert S. Ray was elected mayor of Bethany without opposition. The total of 107 votes was a record for the little college town.

Sales Tax

stamp redemptions, a major source of revenue for many charitable and religious groups.

Since 1939, redemption of the stamps at 3 per cent of their face value has been permitted as a so-called enforcement measure. Redemptions now are running in excess of five million dollars a year.

The auto license increase vote comes as a result of a virtual promise made on the Senate floor when a bill—now in effect—was under study to increase the state sales tax on gasoline by two cents a gallon.

The promise was made in answer to protests that while the gasoline tax increase provided for a state highway program, it provided no more money for local highway building and repair.

The $5-a-vehicle tax would provide a 20-million - dollar - a - year melon to be split for local street and road purposes.

A major development in Tuesday's legislative session was the failure of a proposal to lower the voting age from 21 to 18 years. With 84 favorable votes needed in the House on the proposed constitutional amendment, the count was 80 yes and 47 no. A move to revive the proposal is due today. Three-fifths of both House and Senate must approve an amendment to the constitution to place it on the ballot.

The House Taxation Committee recommended passage of a Senate-approved bill to make Columbus Day a legal holiday in Ohio. It would permit school boards to dismiss classes on that day.

The committee also recommended passage of a bill to allow husbands, along with widows and children, exemptions up to $10,000 on inheritances. But, no sooner had the committee put surviving husbands on a tax par with widows, but members voted a one per cent jump in all inheritance tax brackets. Estimates are that the tax change will bring the state three to four million dollars a year in new revenue.

The House passed and sent to the Senate a bill to increase from one to two mills the tax on money bet at race tracks to help communities where race tracks operate. Up to a maximum of $20,000 per track, revenue would go to local municipalities and townships for fire and police protection, traffic control and road repair. The present top is $10,000.

The House also passed and sent to the Senate a bill to eliminate a $5 fee for local exhibitors at county fairs. It would not apply to professional exhibitors. The hope of sponsors was that expected passage of the bill would induce fair officials to waive the fee at many of this year's fairs. Most of this year's fairs would be under way before the anticipated new law could become effective.

Horticultural Society Sets Picnic Saturday

LISBON — The annual meeting and picnic of the Columbiana County Horticultural Society will be held at Mil-Pic Park Saturday at 6:30 p. m., according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent.

The park is about a mile north of New Waterford.

A coverdish dinner will be served and the committee will furnish cold drinks, ice cream and coffee. Pictures of interest will be shown and all fruit growers in the county are welcome to attend.

Officers Inducted At Dinner Event Of Chester Lions

Jerry D'Angelo, new Chester Lions Club president, and other officers were installed at a "Ladies Night" dinner Tuesday at the Hookstown American Legion home.

John D. Herron of New Cumberland, appointed district deputy governor yesterday, installed the new officers. D'Angelo, operator of a shoe repair shop, succeeds James Wallace.

About 40 attended the dinner which included a musical program under the direction of Tony Bernardi with Nancy Clark as pianist.

India Wheat Output Up

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru told a news conference today India's grain production this year ran a million tons higher than the target fixed under the country's five year plan. He reported a record production of 73 million tons, compared to the previous high of 68.7 million tons in 1957.

Wright Given Eighth Term By State Barbers' Association

Clarence D. Wright of Blakeley St. returned to his Little Building shop Tuesday after his election to a record eighth consecutive term as president of the 8,000 - member Ohio State Barber's Association at its annual convention Sunday and Monday in Akron.

E. M. Sanders of Akron, who has been secretary-treasurer of the association for about 25 years, also was given a new term. With one exception, all other officers were returned.

Thomas Smith of Warren was named eighth vice president to succeed Nick Colla Jr. of Youngstown. The other vice presidents given new terms are: Vincent Hogue of Cincinnati, Frank Blazina of Cleveland, Ray Marchand of Massillon, Charles Moscarino of Cleveland, William Fisher of Cincinnati, Tom Saluk of Painesville and John Milos of Columbus.

The convention was held in the Sheraton-Mayflower Hotel. Approximately 500 attended. Wright was toastmaster for the annual banquet Sunday night. Guests included Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy, Lt. Gov. John W. Donahey, State Sen. Oliver O'Casek of Summit County, Blazina, Frank Weibel of Pittsburgh and George McKenna of Springfield, international vice presidents, Mayor Leo Berg of Akron, Atty. Robert Shuff, also of Akron, John Laurens, president of the State Barber Board, Oscar Poole, area supervisor of apprentice training, George Husk of Indianapolis, secretary-treasurer of the barbers' health and welfare plan, and Charles Bovella of Washington.

Barbers Local 343 of East Liverpool sent two official delegates to the convention. They are Charles Edwards, president, who operates a shop on Mulberry St., and Emerson Hadley of Ohio Ave., employed in Wright's shop.

Tragedy struck two of the delegates and their wives while they were en route home. When he arrived in East Liverpool, Wright learned that two delegates and their wives from the Cincinnati area were involved in a headon auto crash as they neared their home. One couple was killed outright and the other man and his wife were injured critically.

Singer Frankie Laine To Take Show To Wife

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Nan Laine, wife of singer Frankie Laine, is recovering from surgery in California while her husband stars in the State Fair musical production, "Pajama Game."

"She couldn't come to see the show, but I'll bring the show to her," Laine said Tuesday. "The phone company is working out a way to connect our sound system to a phone and relay the show to Nan."

"It'll cost a fortune," Laine said, "but who cares?"

Girl, 16, Admits She Shot Herself

Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan said today that the wounding of a 16-year-old girl near Clarkson on May 25 was self-inflicted and was not caused by a prowler, as she first claimed.

Geraldine Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bishop of Glenmoor, confessed that she placed the .22-caliber rifle against her leg and pushed the trigger. She then told the story that she had been shot by a prowler while baby sitting with a 4-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Conkle, who operate the Brookside Cafe on Route 7, south of Rogers.

"The girl said she shot herself to 'gain attention' as she doesn't want to live at her parents' home." She had been staying with the Conkles.

A hearing will be held in Juvenile Court by Judge Louis Tobin to determine if the girl can be placed in a welfare home, Sheriff VanFossan said.

The Wilson, N. C., Pirates lost their Cigar. Outfielder Morris Cigar of San Pedro, Calif., was optioned to Grand Forks, Neb.

George Prokop Elected Head Of Wellsville Kaycee Council

Officers were elected and plans for a corporate Communion breakfast were outlined at a meeting of Wellsville Knights of Columbus Council 507 Tuesday night.

George Prokop was elected grand knight to succeed James Ross. Prokop served as grand knight for two terms from 1955 to 1957. All officers will assume their duties July 1. Others elected were:

John Kozora, deputy grand knight; Joseph Giuliani, chancellor; Andrew Holloway, warden; James Salters, advocate; Nicholas Puch, recorder; Charles McCune, treasurer; Donald Lozzo, inside guard; Leonard DeFalco, outside guard; Ross, three-year trustee; Anthony Cataldo, two-year trustee, and John Barborak, one-year trustee.

The breakfast will be held Sunday. Members will receive Holy Communion in a group at the 11 a. m. Mass at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church.

Fr. Warren Braun, assistant pastor at St. Patrick's Catholic Church at Leetonia, will be speaker for the meal in the Parochial School. Salters will be toastmaster. Ernest McCarty is in charge of arrangements and reservations. It is open to women and men of the parish.

Ross reported on the progress of the Riverside Ave. beautification project. Members of the K. of C. and Elks Lodge are making a park area along the bank overlooking the Ohio River.

The members will meet at the K. of C. home Thursday at 6 p. m. to continue work.

The St. Rocco festival committee will meet tonight at 8. George Banbelli, business agent of the Sazzoni Brothers Fireworks Co. of New Castle, will be a guest. The festival will be held Aug. 16-23.

The annual organization meeting of the Desmond Holding Co. will be held Tuesday night at 8. Ross presided and announced the annual parish picnic will be held July 12 and the annual council picnic will be held Aug. 30, both at Valley Park.

Big Fish Found In County Pond

A 12-inch sunfish, taken from a pond in Western Columbiana County, has been termed one of the biggest ever seen in Ohio by Milton B. Trautman, curator of the vertebrate collection at Ohio State University.

The giant hybrid, weighing a pound and 13½ ounces, was sent to Trautman by Francis Bezdek of Lisbon R. D. who said he plans to obtain other specimens of the fish from the pond.

Trautman said the specimen, a female 5 inches deep and 2 inches wide, appears to be a cross between a bluegill and red-eared sunfish.

The curator said the size of the fish could be accounted for in three ways—partly due to proverbial hybrid vigor, females are usually larger than males and the presence of an excellent food supply.

Normally bluegills grow about an inch a year, but this 12-inch fish was only 5 years old—indicating a tremendous rate of growth, Trautman said.

Hancock GOP Women To Sponsor Teen Hop

The Hancock County Republican Women's Club made plans for a record hop when it met Tuesday night in the Weirton Community Center.

The teen-age dance was set July 11 from 8 to 11 p. m. in the center, with Stan Scott of WSTV-TV in Steubenville to entertain. Mrs. William Hindman of Weirton, president, presided.

Lunch was served. Mrs. Howard Smith of Newell, a member, said the next meeting is July 11.

Motorist Cited In Near-Crash

A motorist who narrowly averted a collision with a police cruiser, two other autos and a grocery store was fined $10 and costs today in Municipal Court when he pleaded guilty to a reckless driving charge.

Ernest A. Jones of LaCroft was cited at 6 this morning on Lisbon St. near Spring Grove Ave. by Lt. Mike Winters Jr., who said the LaCroft motorist was attempting to pass two cars on a curve when he spotted the cruiser approaching from the opposite direction.

To avoid a collision, Jones went off to the left, the two unidentified motorists halted their autos and the police cruiser swerved to its left. When Jones left the street, his car narrowly missed crashing into the Clark Grocery Store building, the officer reported.

Jones told Judge George L. Brokaw his car swerved when he applied the brakes because one of the front tires was going flat. Before ruling on the case, the judge commented that a driver "has a right to do anything possible to avert an accident."

Another motorist forfeited a $31 bond on a reckless driving charge filed after he allegedly crashed a traffic signal at W. 9th St. and Dresden Ave. and drove back and forth across a double yellow line. He was identified as Robert K. Yost, Box 193, Wellsville, cited at 1:46 this morning on Dresden Ave.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a fellow 24, recently out of the service. When I was home on leave six months ago I met a nice girl. Since I've been home I've dated her about once a week. Now she's made it clear she's serious about me. She's become possessive and wants to spend every minute at my side. I feel trapped.

The girl's mother calls me "Son" and has hinted strongly that we should set a date. I want out.

I'm in no position or mood to get married. I want to enjoy my freedom and meet other girls and date them. Please tell me if I should bow out gracefully or shall I just be a heel and stop dating her without any explanation? I DO enjoy her company but I had no idea it would come to this. Thanks for any advice you can give me. —SNAGGED.

Dear Snagged: Remember, it takes two to make a marriage—an anxious girl and an aggressive mother.

From your description, "Son," I can almost smell the orange blossoms. Self preservation is the first law of the jungle—so first things first, Bub. Bow out as gracefully as you can. And good luck.

Unintended Inference

Dear Ann: I'm sure you take special pride in the work you do. It must be annoying when people generalize and say "all advice colums are alike."

Yet this is the very thing you did recently to those who work in respectable dance studios. You owe it to us to set the record straight.

I've been with a fine dance studio for 10 years. Our business was built on integrity and respectability. The woman who said she was "having trouble holding her head up among decent people because she was a dance instructor" was a disgrace to our profession.

This tramp admitted becoming involved with married students. She was working a racket in collaboration with a fifth-rate studio.

Legitimate studios forbid instructors to socialize with patrons. The girl was using a cheap studio as a front for her nocturnal activities. Please don't make it rough on the respectable studios by putting us in the same boat with the others. —TED Z.

-:-

Dear Ted: Apparently there are many people connected with fine dance studios in the country. I think I heard from all of them.

It was not my intention to lump all studios and suggest they are fronts for "nocturnal commerce." If I left this impression I am sorry.

Wrote Own Ticket

Dear Ann: I'm a married man with a child but I live in a rented room. Why? Because I thought I could push my wife around forever and that she'd always take it.

I used to stay out four and five nights a week, come home with lipstick on my clothes and tell her how many girls I danced with. Sometimes I'd be drunk and shove her around and call her names she had never even heard of.

When she asked me to stay home and be a husband and father I told her I paid the bills and put a roof over her head and that was plenty. I used to complain the baby's crying got on my nerves and I had to get away from it.

Two months ago I came home about 3:30 a.m. I was a little drunk but I sobered up fast when I found she was gone. She took the baby and all their clothes. I'd give anything to have them back. I'd even walk the floor with the kid till it's 10 years old.

I don't need advice. I know where I made my mistake. I need another chance. Print this letter and pray that I get it.—SORRY NOW.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

How Can I? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I remove iron stains from marble?

A. By taking an equal quantity of fresh spirits of vitriol and lemon juice. Mix in a bottle, shake well, wet the spots, and in a few minutes rub with a soft linen cloth until they disappear.

Q. How can I easily remove fingerprints from a patent leather handbag?

A. It can be cleaned with a cloth dipped into milk. After the leather has dried, rub with a soft cloth until the shine returns.

Q. How can I purify the refrigerator?

A. Place a small piece of charcoal in the back of the refrigerator, and this will act as an absorbent of the various odors that will accumulate.

Amvit Plans Plant In East At $4 Million

The American Vitrified Products Co., which has plants in East Liverpool and Lisbon, announced today at Cleveland plans for constructing a $4 million plant for production of vitrified clay pipe and allied products on the East Coast.

E. L. Miller, president, said the new facility at Sinerville, N. J., will be completely automated and the most modern ever built in the industry.

Situated on an 87-acre tract, adjacent to two main railroads and highways, the plant will afford the opportunity for Amvit to make quick deliveries to the Eastern Seaboard and New England area. The company was previously unable to adequately serve this area because of restrictive freight rates.

This is the first new clay pipe plant to be built in the East for many years and will create job opportunities for many people.

For the past two years, this Cleveland-based company has been carrying on extensive research and studies to find suitable raw materials to manufacture clay pipe in the East Coast area. Amvit currently operates 14 plants in all parts of the country. The company has over 1,000 employees and over $12 million in sales.

The addition of this new plant marks a high point in the company's expansion program begun in 1955. In the St. Louis area last year, two clay pipe plants were acquired, and a new concrete pipe plant is now under construction.

Record Total Of 7 Held In City's Jail On Drunk Driving

East Liverpool's jail Tuesday held a record-breaking 7 prisoners who have been convicted of driving while intoxicated, but have been unable to raise the $306 needed to regain their freedom — or make financial arrangements satisfactory to the city.

The accumulation of prisoners began building up last week, when the first of the 7 was arrested. Three were added within 24 hours —a man who was convicted Monday afternoon and two others who appeared before Judge George L. Brokaw in Municipal Court Tuesday morning.

Veteran members of the police force said it is the largest number ever confined at one time after drunk driving convictions. Their meals cost the city $10.50 a day.

A prisoner receives credit at the rate of $3 a day when he "lays out" a fine in jail. If any of the men fails eventually to pay the fine and costs, he will have to serve a total of about 103 days to receive credit for the entire amount.

Some defendants quickly raise the $300 and costs and regain their freedom. The others are held until they arrange to make at least a satisfactory "down payment" on the penalty and sign a contract to pay the balance in regular installments.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a fellow 24, recently out of the service. When I was home on leave six months ago I met a nice girl. Since I've been home I've dated her about once a week. Now she's made it clear she's serious about me. She's become possessive and wants to spend every minute at my side. I feel trapped.

The girl's mother calls me "Son" and has hinted strongly that we should set a date. I want out.

I'm in no position or mood to get married. I want to enjoy my freedom and meet other girls and date them. Please tell me if I should bow out gracefully or shall I just be a heel and stop dating her without any explanation? I DO enjoy her company but I had no idea it would come to this. Thanks for any advice you can give me. —SNAGGED.

Dear Snagged: Remember, it takes two to make a marriage—an anxious girl and an aggressive mother.

From your description, "Son," I can almost smell the orange blossoms. Self preservation is the first law of the jungle—so first things first, Bub. Bow out as gracefully as you can. And good luck.

Unintended Inference

Dear Ann: I'm sure you take special pride in the work you do. It must be annoying when people generalize and say "all advice colums are alike."

Yet this is the very thing you did recently to those who work in respectable dance studios. You owe it to us to set the record straight.

I've been with a fine dance studio for 10 years. Our business was built on integrity and respectability. The woman who said she was "having trouble holding her head up among decent people because she was a dance instructor" was a disgrace to our profession.

This tramp admitted becoming involved with married students. She was working a racket in collaboration with a fifth-rate studio.

Legitimate studios forbid instructors to socialize with patrons. The girl was using a cheap studio as a front for her nocturnal activities. Please don't make it rough on the respectable studios by putting us in the same boat with the others. —TED Z.

-:-

Dear Ted: Apparently there are many people connected with fine dance studios in the country. I think I heard from all of them.

It was not my intention to lump all studios and suggest they are fronts for "nocturnal commerce." If I left this impression I am sorry.

Wrote Own Ticket

Dear Ann: I'm a married man with a child but I live in a rented room. Why? Because I thought I could push my wife around forever and that she'd always take it.

I used to stay out four and five nights a week, come home with lipstick on my clothes and tell her how many girls I danced with. Sometimes I'd be drunk and shove her around and call her names she had never even heard of.

When she asked me to stay home and be a husband and father I told her I paid the bills and put a roof over her head and that was plenty. I used to complain the baby's crying got on my nerves and I had to get away from it.

Two months ago I came home about 3:30 a.m. I was a little drunk but I sobered up fast when I found she was gone. She took the baby and all their clothes. I'd give anything to have them back. I'd even walk the floor with the kid till it's 10 years old.

I don't need advice. I know where I made my mistake. I need another chance. Print this letter and pray that I get it.—SORRY NOW.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

How Can I? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I remove iron stains from marble?

A. By taking an equal quantity of fresh spirits of vitriol and lemon juice. Mix in a bottle, shake well, wet the spots, and in a few minutes rub with a soft linen cloth until they disappear.

Q. How can I easily remove fingerprints from a patent leather handbag?

A. It can be cleaned with a cloth dipped into milk. After the leather has dried, rub with a soft cloth until the shine returns.

Q. How can I purify the refrigerator?

A. Place a small piece of charcoal in the back of the refrigerator, and this will act as an absorbent of the various odors that will accumulate.

City Legion Posts To Send 8 Youths To Buckeye Boys State

Eight East Liverpool High School juniors will leave Thursday morning to represent the city at the American Legion's Buckeye Boys State at Ohio University at Athens tomorrow through June 20.

Chosen by the faculty of the high school, they will be citizens of a mythical "51st state," divided into 4 counties and 20 cities. It will be the 22nd session of the Ohio Legion's annual "school in self-government."

Following an orientation period, the boys will become members of one of two political parties — Nationalists and Federalists — and will hold conventions to select candidates for city, county, and state offices.

Posts 4 and 374 are participating in the program, co-sponsoring four youths each.

Co-sponsors with Post 374 are the Arner Funeral Homes, C. & N. Clover Farm Store, Dawson Funeral Home, First Federal Savings & Loan Assn., Martin Funeral Home and the Ray Wilson service station.

They are:

James Locke, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Locke Jr., 1512 Wyoming Ave.; Robert Wayne Mackall, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Mackall, 1902 Michigan Ave.; Stephen Ray Moore, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Moore, 1045 Ohio Ave., class president, and David Zelch, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Zelch, 1572 Pennsylvania Ave.

The Post 374 boys will be transported to Athens by John Ruhe, past commander, Boys State chairman.

The boys sponsored by Post 4 to the session are Craig Burbick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Burbick of Garner Ave.; Sheridan Bastistelli, son of Mrs. Helen Bastistelli, 210 Jackson St.; Charles Barnhouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Barnhouse, 1905 Lisbon St., and Bruce Alan Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jones of Wyoming Ave.

City Legion Posts To Send 8 Youths To Buckeye Boys State

Eight East Liverpool High School juniors will leave Thursday morning to represent the city at the American Legion's Buckeye Boys State at Ohio University at Athens tomorrow through June 20.

Chosen by the faculty of the high school, they will be citizens of a mythical "51st state," divided into 4 counties and 20 cities. It will be the 22nd session of the Ohio Legion's annual "school in self-government."

Following an orientation period, the boys will become members of one of two political parties — Nationalists and Federalists — and will hold conventions to select candidates for city, county, and state offices.

Posts 4 and 374 are participating in the program, co-sponsoring four youths each.

Co-sponsors with Post 374 are the Arner Funeral Homes, C. & N. Clover Farm Store, Dawson Funeral Home, First Federal Savings & Loan Assn., Martin Funeral Home and the Ray Wilson service station.

They are:

James Locke, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Locke Jr., 1512 Wyoming Ave.; Robert Wayne Mackall, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Mackall, 1902 Michigan Ave.; Stephen Ray Moore, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Moore, 1045 Ohio Ave., class president, and David Zelch, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Zelch, 1572 Pennsylvania Ave.

The Post 374 boys will be transported to Athens by John Ruhe, past commander, Boys State chairman.

The boys sponsored by Post 4 to the session are Craig Burbick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Burbick of Garner Ave.; Sheridan Bastistelli, son of Mrs. Helen Bastistelli, 210 Jackson St.; Charles Barnhouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Barnhouse, 1905 Lisbon St., and Bruce Alan Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jones of Wyoming Ave.

Talks Resume In Firestone Rubber Strike

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Negotiations resume today in an effort to end a walkout of 18,000 employes of the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co.—the only one of the rubber industry's big four still strikebound.

Representatives of the United Rubber Workers Union and the B. F. Goodrich Co. reached agreement in Canton Tuesday to end the strike of 14,000 Goodrich employes in eight cities.

Strikes against Firestone and Goodrich started at midnight April 15 after their contracts with the URW expired. Agreement was reached between the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. and the union without a strike.

U. S. Rubber Co., the other member of the big four, was struck by the URW April 10, but that walkout ended three weeks later.

Firestone and union negotiators met in two sessions Tuesday and another session was scheduled today. The talks are being held in Cleveland.

The new Goodrich pension and insurance agreement runs to July 1, 1964. The collective bargaining agreement covering working conditions and supplemental unemployment benefits will expire June 9, 1961.

Goodrich locals of the URW meet Sunday to vote on the new settlement. A majority of the workers and at least five locals must approve.

Wages were not at issue in the talks with the rubber firms. The union's international policy committee meets in Chicago today and Thursday to set wage goals which will be taken up with the companies under a contract reopening clause later this year.

Goodrich maintenance workers were called in Tuesday within a few hours after the agreement was reached. A company spokesman said production "ought to be started by early next week in most departments."

Workers covered by the Goodrich agreements are employed in plants here and in Los Angeles, Oaks, Pa.; Marion, Ohio; Clarksville, Tenn.; Tuscaloosa, Ala.; Miami, Okla., and Riverside, N.J.

Chicago-Bound Man Arrives In Honolulu

HONOLULU (AP) — Tired, he boarded the plane and dozed off.

Waking, he looked out of the window and saw the blue Pacific.

Richard Fuerst had intended to go to Chicago. He arrived in Honolulu.

He told the stewardess he apparently went through the wrong gate at Burbank, Calif. The pilot suggested he remain a day as the airline's guest. But Fuerst, of Marinette, Wis., insisted: "Got to get to Chicago."

After a 2-hour Hula holiday, he caught a plane for the mainland.

New Floor Care Ends Waxing

One of the difficult jobs of housekeeping is to wax linoleum and asphalt tile floors. Now, thanks to Glaxo, it's no longer necessary to wax or scrub; just apply Glaxo about twice a year. It maintains a high lustre, non slip coating that seals out dirt. Glaxo dries in one hour and is water clear. It's cheaper than wax in the long run, besides saving a terrific amount of work, plus truly a beautiful floor.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY MEYERS

Give Child Incentive For Improvement

A mother wrote that she was trying to encourage tidiness at meals in her two little girls, three and four. After a meal she would mount a star on the wall for the child whose place around her plate was most tidy. The mother said it didn't bring the results she hoped for and that she stopped the practice. Chances are that one child always, or nearly always, won. Her gain meant the other child's loss. Strong jealousy arose in the loser. I suggested that the mother change the plan and award the star for improvement in tidiness. Then both children might win a star. She tried this and reported it was a great success.

By Garry Meyers

Similar problems arise in the classroom.

—:—

AS A RULE, the best written work or drawing by school children is displayed on the classroom walls.

The samples displayed are generally by the same few children. Other children, especially those with very poor achievement, soon cease striving to win display of their work. "What's the use?" is their attitude.

But if the work showing the greatest improvement were displayed, every child might have an opportunity to win.

I once knew a few elementary teachers who did just that.

Trying to stimulate neatness in written work, the teacher filed a sample paper of each child, say in March, and again a month later.

Then she posted the samples of half a dozen children whose papers showed the most improvement. The sample of March appeared side by side with the sample of April.

—:—

ANOTHER TEACHER had her children of the fourth grade keep an improvement book. Each child entered and dated a sample of his written work on a certain day of each month. Later, he and his classmates examined these records, looking for evidence of improvement.

On the market now is a simple, inexpensive plan of awarding children for improvement in such matters as neatness of work, thoughtfulness of others or effort.

Each week an award is made to one child. Sometimes the winner is the one who had been the lowest in the particular trait emphasized.

The plan is now being used in a number of classrooms throughout the nation.

Any parent or teacher can improvise similar awards of her own.

My bulletin "Celebrate Your Child's Successes" may be had by sending a self - addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Keep In Trim

Dieters Should Gauge Weight Limits

With streamlines so fashionable, it seems that no mirror ever reflects a woman too thin. Ogden Nash expressed it something like this: "Let a woman reduce 10 pounds, does she say 'That's plenty'? No! She wants to make it 20." More than one husband has written to implore this dietitian to urge women not to reduce too far.

Ida Jean Kain

Vigorous human beings carry some reserve body fat. A desirable weight has been described as the weight at which a woman looks and feels her buoyant best. From a man's point of view, a little added weight, say 6 to 8 rounded pounds above the streamlined margin, is softening and "puts a bloom on a woman."

—:—

THERE IS NO exact pound or point at which a person's weight is considered ideal, but rather a weight zone, and this zone will vary for different individuals. Weight is not the same as fat.

Body weight is a total of the bone, muscle, fat and fluid in the body. Heavy bones and a big frame weigh more than light ones and entitle their owner to carry more poundage.

As a starting point for figuring desirable weight, here is a good rule of thumb: Women can allow 100, 105 or 110 pounds for the first five feet of height, depending on whether the frame is small, medium or large.

Then add five pounds for each extra inch by which height exceeds 5 feet. Height is computed without shoes and weight without clothing. Men start at 110 pounds for five feet and add 5½ pounds for each extra inch of height over five feet.

However, the man with heavy muscles and a big frame is entitled to carry up to 10 per cent more weight. It is excess fat that is associated with chronic degenerative diseases.

What about birthdays? After 30, birthdays don't count—not on the weight score at least. Your ideal weight at 30 is your best weight from then on.

—:—

HOW DOES ONE determine the size of the frame? The wrist is one gauge. The width of the shoulders is another means of determining one's frame.

Wide shoulders and large wrists mean a large build, and usually entitle their owner to carry more weight. Narrow shoulders and small wrists go with a small build. If there is any question about your frame, settle for medium.

Send a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for "Ideal Weight Chart For Women." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Post card requests can not be answered.

West Virginia's Boys State Picks Fairmont Youth

JACKSON'S MILL, W. Va. (AP)—Bill Shaffer has brought his home town of Fairmont the honor of having its first governor of Mountaineer Boys State.

Shaffer was elected last night to be the 22nd governor of Boys State, an annual citizenship training camp sponsored by the American Legion. Running on the Federalist ticket, Shaffer defeated Nationalist nominee Bob Secret of Clarksburg.

Others elected to Board of Public Works officers were:

Federalists — John Madia of Clarksburg, treasurer; Jim Stonestreet of Laurel Dale, agriculture commissioner, and J. J. Curtis of Fairmont, attorney general.

Nationalists — Ronald DeCarlo of Morgantown, secretary of state; Larry Stacher of Spencer, auditor, and Dave Treharne of Parkersburg, school superintendent.

Federalists Sam Feazell of Beckley and Eric Myrland of Parkersburg and Nationalists David Haddad of Wheeling and Joseph Cinalli of Fairmont won four of the Supreme Court races.

For the fifth seat on the court, there was a tie between Bill Teano of Oak Hill and Joe Lockhart of Parkersburg, both Federalists. They were to decide the outcome by drawing lots.

Ohio's Highway Chief Sends SOS To Congressmen

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's highway director is sending an "SOS" to Ohio's congressmen.

Faced with the possibility of drastic curtailment of federal interstate highway funds, the director, Everett S. Preston, is writing senators and representatives, asking "support for any logical and feasible plan to continue federal allocations at or near past levels."

Preston warns that more than half the state's 300-million-dollar road construction program for the next fiscal year (July 1, 1959, to June 30, 1960) may have to be cut off because of lack of federal highway money in fiscal 1961 and 1962.

He explained that Bertram D. Tallamy, federal highway administrator, wired him there may be no money for interstate highway construction in the July 1, 1960-June 30, 1961 period and only about a third of the usual amount in 1961-62.

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — This city hiked its fine for overtime parking from 50 cents to a dollar Monday. Among the first to be docked for the doubled fine was Robert S. Davis, chairman of the traffic committee which had recommended the higher fine.

Beaver Local School Project To Be Speeded

The Beaver Local Board of Education will meet Thursday night at 7:30 to complete details for the start of construction of additions at the district's six school buildings, slated within two weeks.

The State Board of Education Monday formally authorized contracts for the $482,000 project, with low bids for general construction approved for the Potters Construction Co., Floyd Cox of East Liverpool and Cartwright Construction of Sebring.

Potters will build the additions at the high school and Public School for a combined total of $115,864, Cartwright will erect the Calcutta addition for $67,440 and Cox will build additions at Rogers, Elkton and West Point for a total of $86,968.

The project calls for a new music room, offices and other facilities at the high school, four new classrooms at the Public School and classrooms and kitchens at the three elementary schools.

Other contracts awarded on the basis of low bids were to the Firestone Electric Co. of Salem, $49,400 for electric work, Hall Plumbing & Heating of East Liverpool, $67,250 for heating and ventilating and $28,600 for plumbing, the three at all the schools; Durable Floors of Youngstown for tile for the high school and Public School and Calcutta and the Roofing & Flooring Co. of Warren for the three elementary buildings, and the Republic Steel Co. of Canton for clothing lockers at the five elementary schools.

The C. S. Christy Co. of East Liverpool was awarded a $900 contract for demolition of a present wooden building at Calcutta to clear the site for the new addition.

No contracts were awarded for kitchen equipment or blacktopping. George VanHorne said funds are set aside for the kitchen equipment, but items will be purchased individually as needed instead of outfitting kitchens complete as originally planned.

Blacktopping has been postponed until later as an economy move.

The board also is slated to award contracts for the sale of $220,000 in bonds Thursday night. The issue was approved in November to share in financing the improvement program.

2 Men Named To Committee Of Merchants

Two men were named to serve on the new executive committee of the East Liverpool Merchants Association at the monthly meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday afternoon.

They are Paul Bloor, pharmacy operator, and Bert Wakefield, an employe of the Ohio Power Co. The first two members of the committee, William Kozel and Maurice Rapport, were appointed last week at the ELMA meeting. The four, along with the ELMA officers, will comprise the executive committee of the merchants' group.

Creation of the new committee was authorized in a recent change in the ELMA organization structure, which eliminated the former Board of Directors.

In other business, the Chamber board voted to dispense with its July and August meetings, as it does each summer because of the vacation season. The next regular meeting will be Sept. 8.

Alvin Babb, vice president, reported on the Ohio Valley tour arranged June 28-30 by the Upper Ohio Valley Development Council to interest industries in locating in this area. Robert E. Boyce reported on a recent meeting of the industrial development committee, in which it pushed ahead with plans to interest industry in locating in this area.

Beaver Local School Project To Be Speeded

The Beaver Local Board of Education will meet Thursday night at 7:30 to complete details for the start of construction of additions at the district's six school buildings, slated within two weeks.

The State Board of Education Monday formally authorized contracts for the $482,000 project, with low bids for general construction approved for the Potters Construction Co., Floyd Cox of East Liverpool and Cartwright Construction of Sebring.

Potters will build the additions at the high school and Public School for a combined total of $115,864, Cartwright will erect the Calcutta addition for $67,440 and Cox will build additions at Rogers, Elkton and West Point for a total of $86,968.

The project calls for a new music room, offices and other facilities at the high school, four new classrooms at the Public School and classrooms and kitchens at the three elementary schools.

Other contracts awarded on the basis of low bids were to the Firestone Electric Co. of Salem, $49,400 for electric work, Hall Plumbing & Heating of East Liverpool, $67,250 for heating and ventilating and $28,600 for plumbing, the three at all the schools; Durable Floors of Youngstown for tile for the high school and Public School and Calcutta and the Roofing & Flooring Co. of Warren for the three elementary buildings, and the Republic Steel Co. of Canton for clothing lockers at the five elementary schools.

The C. S. Christy Co. of East Liverpool was awarded a $900 contract for demolition of a present wooden building at Calcutta to clear the site for the new addition.

No contracts were awarded for kitchen equipment or blacktopping. George VanHorne said funds are set aside for the kitchen equipment, but items will be purchased individually as needed instead of outfitting kitchens complete as originally planned.

Blacktopping has been postponed until later as an economy move.

The board also is slated to award contracts for the sale of $220,000 in bonds Thursday night. The issue was approved in November to share in financing the improvement program.

2 Men Named To Committee Of Merchants

Two men were named to serve on the new executive committee of the East Liverpool Merchants Association at the monthly meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday afternoon.

They are Paul Bloor, pharmacy operator, and Bert Wakefield, an employe of the Ohio Power Co. The first two members of the committee, William Kozel and Maurice Rapport, were appointed last week at the ELMA meeting. The four, along with the ELMA officers, will comprise the executive committee of the merchants' group.

Creation of the new committee was authorized in a recent change in the ELMA organization structure, which eliminated the former Board of Directors.

In other business, the Chamber board voted to dispense with its July and August meetings, as it does each summer because of the vacation season. The next regular meeting will be Sept. 8.

Alvin Babb, vice president, reported on the Ohio Valley tour arranged June 28-30 by the Upper Ohio Valley Development Council to interest industries in locating in this area. East Liverpool area residents interested in joining a one-day section of the tour on June 30—which will include a riverboat trip from Steubenville to East Liverpool — should make reservations with the Chamber office by June 19, he announced.

Robert E. Boyce reported on a recent meeting of the industrial development committee, in which it pushed ahead with plans to interest industry in locating in this area.

Francis H. Lang, chairman, reported for the roads and streets committee. He distributed copies of an annual report when he presented in May at a meeting of the Lake Erie-Ohio River Highway Association at Warren. Lang heads the association.

Supplemental Report Boosts Theft Loss $59

Pauline Tice, 1646 Pennsylvania Ave., filed a supplemental report with the police department Tuesday showing that a pay envelope containing $59.63 was taken from her auto Monday night, in addition to the $28 in change reported missing in the original report.

The first report said the change was taken by a thief who stole the auto in Thompson Park at 7:45 p. m. Monday. The car was found abandoned about an hour later at W. 3rd and Monroe Sts.

In the supplemental report, the owner said the loss also included a pay envelope containing two $20 bills, a $10, a $5, four $1's and 63 cents in change.

Orioles Dump Indians, 7-4; Tie Chicago For League Lead

White Sox Beaten By Senators, 7-4

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Orioles are tied for the American League lead!

Never since Baltimore returned to the majors in 1954, have the Birds been in first place after the first few days of a season.

They did it by belting Cleveland's suddenly dead Injuns 7-3 Tuesday night while Washington beat the Chicago White Sox 7-4. That left the White Sox and Orioles with 29-24 records and a 1½-game lead over third-place Cleveland in one of the closest AL pennant races ever.

There's only a 5½-game spread from top to bottom.

New York's defending champions finally reached .500 with a 9-8, 13-inning victory over Kansas City that hoisted the Yankees from sixth into a fourth place tie with Detroit, beaten 5-2 at Boston. Both are only 2½ games behind the leaders.

Kansas City, now sixth, trails by only three games. Seventh-place Washington is five games behind with Boston last, 5½ back.

In the National League, St. Louis whittled Milwaukee's lead to two games by whipping the Braves 12-3. Second-place San Francisco beat Pittsburgh 6-2, the Chicago Cubs defeated Cincinnati 8-4 and Los Angeles plunked Philadelphia back into the cellar 3-2.

The castoffs, players labeled expendable by other clubs, did the job as the Orioles handed the Indians their ninth defeat in 10 games. Gene Woodling, who even Manager Paul Richards once traded away, and Chico Carrasquel, peddled by the White Sox, Indians and A's, each belted two - run homers. And Billy Loes, once with the Dodgers and the guy Baltimore tried to dump this spring, saved it with another fine relief job. Ernie Johnson the right - hander Milwaukee didn't want, won it.

Loes, the right-hander whose trade to Washington was nixed by arm trouble, came on as the Birds' third pitcher Tuesday night with the bases loaded and none out in the seventh inning. He retired Woody Held on a pop up, then fanned George Strickland and Minnie Minoso, finishing with a hitless three-inning mop up.

Johnson (3-1), who gave up two hits and two walks, had relieved starter Billy O'Dell in the fifth. The Birds packed it away in the bottom of the fifth on a pair of walks and errors by loser Mudcat Grant (3-2) and Rocky Colavito that scored three runs.

It was the Orioles' fifth victory in their last eight games.

Rookie Bob Allison drove in three of Washington's first four runs with his 13th and 14th homers. Then the Senators won it with three in the eighth against losing reliever Turk Lown (3-2) on a single, an error, three walks, a hit batter and a balk.

The Red Sox slowed the fast-moving Tigers with five runs on six hits and an error in the first inning against Rookie Jerry Davie (2-2). Rookie Gerry Casale (4-4), whose two-run double capped the first inning, allowed only four hits, one Charlie Maxwell's two-run 12th homer in the fourth inning.

Hector Lopez, late of the A's, tripled and scored a tying run for the Yankees in the ninth, then singled home the clincher in the 13th against Tom Sturdivant (1-3), late of the Yankees. Jim Coates won his first in the majors as the Yankees' sixth hurler and 10th in the game. Norm Siebern and Mickey Mantle homered for the Yanks, who had 17 hits, but twice blew leads while getting their 10th victory in 12 games.

Baltimore Scores 3 Runs On Bunt

BALTIMORE (AP) — How do you score three runs on a bunt? Impossible?

The Cleveland Indians Tuesday night showed the Baltimore Orioles it can be done by chipping in with two throwing errors following Willie Tasby's bunt single with runners on first and second.

The play came in the fifth inning and was a major factor in the Orioles' 7-3 victory over the slump-ridden Indians, who now have lost nine of their last 10 games.

The Indians held a 3-2 lead when the unusual play occurred. Chico Carrasquel and Al Pilarcik drew walks to start the inning. Then Tasby's bunt toward third was grabbed by pitcher Jim (Mudcat) Grant who heaved a hurried throw over first baseman Vic Power's head.

The base runners started a mad scramble around the bases. Right fielder Rocky Colavito picked the ball up in foul territory and unloosed a long throw to third base. It also was wild and Tasby followed Carrasquel and Pilarcik across the plate.

Carrasquel homered in the next inning with a man aboard to make the score 7-3 and the Indians never moved any closer.

The Orioles grabbed a 2-0 lead in the first frame on ex-Indian Gene Woodling's two-run homer. Cleveland got a run back in the second on singles by Power and Ed FitzGerald and a forceout. An inning later, the Indians tied at 2-2 on a single by Woodie Held and George Strickland's double to deep left center.

Cleveland's third run was a gift of Baltimore errors. Power got a one-out single, moved to second on Billy Martin's single off pitcher Billy O'Dell's leg. O'Dell then tried to pick Power off second and fired the ball into center field. Tasby fumbled the ball in the outfield and Power just kept running all the way home.

The fifth inning comedy of errors by Cleveland gave Baltimore a 5-3 edge and the two-run home run by Carrasquel, another former Indian, wound up the scoring.

The victory put the Orioles in a first place tie with Chicago.

Gary Bell (4 - 5) faces Baltimore's Jerry Walker (4-2) tonight in the second game of the three-game night series here.

Baltimore Scores 3 Runs On Bunt

BALTIMORE (AP) — How do you score three runs on a bunt? Impossible?

The Cleveland Indians Tuesday night showed the Baltimore Orioles it can be done by chipping in with two throwing errors following Willie Tasby's bunt single with runners on first and second.

The play came in the fifth inning and was a major factor in the Orioles' 7-3 victory over the slump-ridden Indians, who now have lost nine of their last 10 games.

The Indians held a 3-2 lead when the unusual play occurred. Chico Carrasquel and Al Pilarcik drew walks to start the inning. Then Tasby's bunt toward third was grabbed by pitcher Jim (Mudcat) Grant who heaved a hurried throw over first baseman Vic Power's head.

The base runners started a mad scramble around the bases. Right fielder Rocky Colavito picked the ball up in foul territory and unloosed a long throw to third base. It also was wild and Tasby followed Carrasquel and Pilarcik across the plate.

Carrasquel homered in the next inning with a man aboard to make the score 7-3 and the Indians never moved any closer.

The Orioles grabbed a 2-0 lead in the first frame on ex-Indian Gene Woodling's two-run homer. Cleveland got a run back in the second on singles by Power and Ed FitzGerald and a forceout. An inning later, the Indians tied at 2-2 on a single by Woodie Held and George Strickland's double to deep left center.

Cleveland's third run was a gift of Baltimore errors. Power got a one-out single, moved to second on Billy Martin's single off pitcher Billy O'Dell's leg. O'Dell then tried to pick Power off second and fired the ball into center field. Tasby fumbled the ball in the outfield and Power just kept running all the way home.

The fifth inning comedy of errors by Cleveland gave Baltimore a 5-3 edge and the two-run home run by Carrasquel, another former Indian, wound up the scoring.

The victory put the Orioles in a first place tie with Chicago.

Gary Bell (4 - 5) faces Baltimore's Jerry Walker (4-2) tonight in the second game of the three-game night series here.

Cardinals Cut Braves Lead With 12-3 Victory Over Spahn

Giants Pick Up Ground With 6-2 Win Over Bucs

By ED WILKS
By The Associated Press

An unpredictable bunch, these St. Louis Cardinals. They've lost more one-run decisions (15), and dropped more games by last-inning runs (9) than any other club in the National League. But when they break loose for their biggest run production of the season, who do they blast off against? No less than first-place Milwaukee and Warren Spahn.

They quit the cellar with a 12-3 romp against the Braves Tuesday night, running up the highest one-game run total this season against Milwaukee.

It also was their first victory in five tries against the Braves and only the 30th time in 83 decisions that they have beaten Spahn, who now is 7-7 and has been charged with a third of Milwaukee's losses.

This one trimmed the Braves' lead to two games over the San Francisco Giants, who won 6-2 at Pittsburgh. Chicago and Los Angeles remained tied for third, four games behind, when the Cubs belted Cincinnati 8-4 and the Dodgers plunked Philadelphia into the cellar 3-2.

In the American League, Baltimore tied first-place Chicago by beating Cleveland 7-3 while the White Sox lost 7-4 at Washington. Boston defeated Detroit 5-2, and New York tied the Tigers for fourth by beating Kansas City 9-8 in 13 innings.

Ken Boyer drove in four runs for the Cards with a two-run homer, his 13th, and a two-run double. Gino Cimoli batted in three with his fifth homer in a five-run sixth that made it a rout. Boyer and Bill White each had three hits in the Cards' 16-hit barrage, with White socking two doubles and a triple.

Larry Jackson (4-6), who had lost twice to the Braves, had a shutout until Hank Aaron's RBI double in the sixth.

Southpaw Johnny Antonelli (8-3), who has won five of his last six decisions, was the Giants' winner with a five-hitter, blanking the Bucs on three hits before Don Hoak's home run in the seventh. Dick Stuart homered for the other Pirate run in the eighth. Vern Law (5-4) wast he loser.

Three homers scored six runs for the Cubs, who now have won six of their last seven. Bobby Thomson's seventh homer came with two on in the fifth against loser Joe Nuxhall (3-4), who left after putting a tie-breaking run on base in the seventh. Ernie Banks then tagged reliever Tom Acker for his 14th home run and Dale Long added his eighth. Bill Henry (4-2) won it with 2 2-3 innings of hitless relief.

The Dodgers had only four hits, split by Junior Gilliam and Wally Moon, but beat Ray Semproch (2-4) in the sixth inning when Gilliam's single, a force out and Moon's double broke a 2-2 tie. Moon's triple and an infield out had deadlocked it in the fourth. The other Dodger run was unearned, scoring in the second on two errors and a walk. Stan Williams (3-1) was the winner.

8 Cities Mentioned In Proposed New Loop

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Times said today that New York, Toronto, Houston, Denver, Dallas-Fort Worth and Minneapolis-St. Paul "were virtually certain to be included" in a proposed third major baseball league.

American and National League club owners last month voted to "favorably consider" applications for the establishment of such a league.

Orioles' Manager Calls Loes 'Artist'

BALTIMORE (AP) — Now the unpredictable Billy Loes of the Baltimore Orioles has been tagged an "artist."

At least that's how Manager Paul Richards described the right-handed pitcher after his fine relief job Tuesday night against Cleveland.

Baltimore's 7-3 win over the Indians, coupled with Washington's 7-4 victory over Chicago, put the Orioles in a first-place tie with the White Sox.

"All great artists have their eccentricities," said Richards. "Some throw their paint brushes and easel, some push a photographer's cap down over his face. But make no mistake about it, they're both artists nonetheless."

Loes came on to relieve Ernie Johnson with the bases loaded and none out in the seventh inning. He got Woody Held on an infield pop, then fanned George Strickland and Minnie Minoso to end the inning without a run.

As Loes headed for the Oriole bench, he saw a camera being pointed in his direction. Loes merely reached out with his glove and pushed the photographer's cap down over his face and continued to the bench.

Harris Easily Beats Powell

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Roy Harris returned to Army duty today after using a fancy left to bolster his heavyweight comeback.

The Cut and Shoot, Tex., schoolteacher cut loose with a barrage of left jabs and hooks Tuesday night to take a surprisingly easy unanimous 10-round decision over Charley Powell, the former pro football player from San Diego.

A crowd of nearly 6,000 paid $29,553 to see Harris score his fourth straight victory since losing to Champion Floyd Patterson in a title match last August in Los Angeles.

The defeat was the first for Powell since he quit the San Francisco 49ers for a heavyweight career.

Harris won every round except the fourth. He split that one with the big California Negro whose title match hopes had boomed since an impressive March victory over Nino Valdes, the No. 2 contender.

Powell apologized for not looking better but said he injured his right hand in the second round. "If Roy had been that sharp against Patterson he would have won the title," said Lou Viscusi, manager of the Texan.

Pony League Victory Goes To Woodbine

Butch Nolan pitched shutout ball for six innings before giving up a run as Woodbines picked up a 5-1 decision over Burbicks Tuesday in the Pony League.

While Nolan was holding Burbicks at bay his teammates came up with five runs featured by a big three-run fourth inning and single markers in the fifth and sixth innings.

The winners collected five singles off loser Eddie Pruden who struck out eight in going the distance.

Howell's double was the big blow for Burbicks. No Woodbine batter collected more than one hit off Pruden.

The victory was Woodbine's third in five games.

He was presented a trophy during the post meeting Monday.

The Wellsville star had 17 offers from colleges.

1958 Winner Will Return To Waterford

Cosmos, winner of four in a row at Waterford Park during the 1958 fall session, will return to the track for the season which gets under way June 17.

Cosmos turned in one of the longest streaks in West Virginia racing last season. He is among 11 horses which trainer Harry H. Chopin will handle for P. L. Rice.

During the fall meeting last year Cosmos started his string of victories on Sept. 17 and ended the run on Oct. 1, the four being among nine victories he turned in during the year.

8 Cities Mentioned In Proposed New Loop

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Times said today that New York, Toronto, Houston, Denver, Dallas-Fort Worth and Minneapolis-St. Paul "were virtually certain to be included" in a proposed third major baseball league.

American and National League club owners last month voted to "favorably consider" applications for the establishment of such a league.

Orioles' Manager Calls Loes 'Artist'

BALTIMORE (AP) — Now the unpredictable Billy Loes of the Baltimore Orioles has been tagged an "artist."

At least that's how Manager Paul Richards described the right-handed pitcher after his fine relief job Tuesday night against Cleveland.

Baltimore's 7-3 win over the Indians, coupled with Washington's 7-4 victory over Chicago, put the Orioles in a first-place tie with the White Sox.

"All great artists have their eccentricities," said Richards. "Some throw their paint brushes and easel, some push a photographer's cap down over his face. But make no mistake about it, they're both artists nonetheless."

Loes came on to relieve Ernie Johnson with the bases loaded and none out in the seventh inning. He got Woody Held on an infield pop, then fanned George Strickland and Minnie Minoso to end the inning without a run.

As Loes headed for the Oriole bench, he saw a camera being pointed in his direction. Loes merely reached out with his glove and pushed the photographer's cap down over his face and continued to the bench.

Harris Easily Beats Powell

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Roy Harris returned to Army duty today after using a fancy left to bolster his heavyweight comeback.

The Cut and Shoot, Tex., schoolteacher cut loose with a barrage of left jabs and hooks Tuesday night to take a surprisingly easy unanimous 10-round decision over Charley Powell, the former pro football player from San Diego.

A crowd of nearly 6,000 paid $29,553 to see Harris score his fourth straight victory since losing to Champion Floyd Patterson in a title match last August in Los Angeles.

The defeat was the first for Powell since he quit the San Francisco 49ers for a heavyweight career.

Harris won every round except the fourth. He split that one with the big California Negro whose title match hopes had boomed since an impressive March victory over Nino Valdes, the No. 2 contender.

Powell apologized for not looking better but said he injured his right hand in the second round.

"If Roy had been that sharp against Patterson he would have won the title," said Lou Viscusi, manager of the Texan.

Tommy Bolt Set To Defend His Open Title

MAMARONECK, N.Y. (AP) —A confident Tommy Bolt begins defense of his U.S. Open Golf Championship Thursday, apparently unconcerned by the shadows of those two aging titans, Ben Hogan and Sam Snead.

It's another Snead-Hogan Open, so far as most of the gallery at the Winged Foot Golf Club is concerned, and it will remain so until they fall from contention. It's been that way almost for the last 15 years.

Hogan, 46, tight-lipped and determined, and with his putting touch good again, is shooting for a record fifth open title. Snead, 47, winner of 103 other tournaments, is seeking his first.

Bolt fired a two-under-par 68 in practice Tuesday and promptly announced that he didn't intend to vacate his throne without a struggle.

"I'm driving better than I did at Tulsa last year," the pug-faced champion said. "I'll tell you one thing — I may not win but I'll give it a go."

Bolt is rated no better than third choice in preliminary odds which have made Snead the co-favorite with Arnold Palmer, at 6-1 and placed Cary Middlecoff and Art Wall Jr. next at 7-1.

The champion is 10-1 with Hogan, Ken Venturi and Gene Littler.

BALTIMORE (AP) — Ed FitzGerald of the Cleveland Indians suffered a broken thumb in the seventh inning of the game with the Baltimore Orioles Tuesday night, leaving the Indians with only one catcher.

Russ Nixon batted for FitzGerald in the eighth inning and finished the game behind the plate.

Trainer Wally Bock said the injury would shelve FitzGerald for three weeks.

Belmont Stakes Likely To Lure 7 On Saturday

By The Associated Press

Seven horses are likely to prance to the starting gate Saturday in the Belmont Stakes, last bauble of racing's triple crown.

Latest probable starters in the $125,000-added mile-and-a-half gallup are Claiborne Farm's Dunce and P.H.B. Frelinghuysen's Lake Erie.

Dunce has been coming on strong since he ran out of the money in the Kentucky Derby, won by Tomy Lee. The 3-year-old son of Tom Fool-Ghazni bounced back to finish fourth in the Preakness — second of the triple crown events — and Tuesday impressed his owners with a 2½-length triumph in the High Gun Purse at Belmont Park.

Lake Erie has a proud reputation to uphold. His daddy, War Admiral, successfully completed the Kentucky Derby - Preakness-Belmont triple in 1937.

The favorite's role likely will go to Preakness winner Royal Orbit. Other likely to start are Sword Dancer, Black Hills, Bagdad and Manassa Mauler.

Left fielder John Burgwyn led the University of North Carolina batters with a .324 mark this spring.

Buckeye Stars Seek Second Straight Win

The Ohio All-Stars will be shooting for their second straight victory over a star-studded squad from Western Pennsylvania tonight 8 at the Salem High School gymnasium.

Ohio scored a 73-55 victory in the first meeting Saturday at Farrell.

Ken Glenn was the big star in the first contest, the 6-foot-6 cager from Cleveland East Tech pouring in 18 points.

The game at Farrell was nip and tuck for the first half until the Buckeyes opened up to take a commanding lead early in the second half.

Other performers for Ohio will be Jim Stone of Cleveland East Tech, Ron Sabo and Paul Avery of Youngstown Chaney and Woody Deitch and Lou Slaby of Salem.

Bonnell Wins Singles Title At East Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — James Bonnell of Beaver Falls rallied, after losing the first set, and defeated Ted Ostrowski of New Castle to win the Knights of Columbus singles championship Tuesday night in the annual tennis tournament at City Park.

Bonnell lost 4-6, then won 6-1 and 6-2. Trophies were presented to the winner and to the runner-up. Trombold and Lally of East Palestine defeated Samuels and Stergeon of New Castle in the doubles semi-finals.

The doubles winners will meet Thursday night at City Park the winners of a match tonight at New Castle.

The great Man o' War sired 62 stakes winners before his death in 1947.

Schoendienst To Delay Comeback A Few Weeks

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Red Schoendienst, veteran Braves second baseman, was reported today recovering satisfactorily from tuberculosis but it appeared doubtful whether he would be able to begin practice in Milwaukee early in July as he originally planned.

Red's wife, Mary, reported that his Doctor William Werner had not given him the go-ahead sign for any serious workouts but he went through a 40-minute drill stopping grounders in the backyard of their home last Saturday.

She said that her father, Jim O'Reilly, a former semi-pro ball player hit several grounders to Schoendienst.

"I'm a little prejudiced," she said, "but I thought Red looked real sharp digging those grounders out of the dirt.

"In my own way, too, I've given him a series of little tests to see how his reflexes react-and here, too, he's been sharp as ever.

"But we can't rush things and Dr. Werner still hasn't given him permission to start working out.

"We originally planned to move to Milwaukee after school was dismissed for the summer, but I think we'll have to delay matters a little."

Red had planned to start practice after the first All-Star Game July 8.

Cleveland Catcher Has Broken Thumb

BALTIMORE (AP) — Ed FitzGerald of the Cleveland Indians suffered a broken thumb in the seventh inning of the game with the Baltimore Orioles Tuesday night, leaving the Indians with only one catcher.

Russ Nixon batted for FitzGerald in the eighth inning and finished the game behind the plate.

Trainer Wally Bock said the injury would shelve FitzGerald for three weeks.

Legion Batters Hit 5 Homers

Chester Nine, Travelers Clinch First Half Titles

The power-laden Chester Legion nine and Travelers Hotel clinched first half pennants in their respective Little League divisions Tuesday.

Chester put the National League title away by bombarding Medics, 12-5 with five home runs. Travelers won the first half in the American division by setting idle as Millirons shutout second place Golden Star, 10-0. The loss gave Golden Star a 4-4-mark while Travelers have won six and lost only one.

In one other Little League contest, Burbicks defeated McBurneys, 10-6.

Chester Legion pounded out 12 hits led by catcher Gary Cashdollar who lined two home runs over the centerfield fence and added a single in four trips to the plate.

Solo homers were hit by Dennis Horger, Billy Wright and Walt Elliott. The trio also added singles to the attack.

Belmont Stakes Likely To Lure 7 On Saturday

By The Associated Press

Seven horses are likely to prance to the starting gate Saturday in the Belmont Stakes, last bauble of racing's triple crown.

Latest probable starters in the $125,000-added mile-and-a-half gallup are Claiborne Farm's Dunce and P.H.B. Frelinghuysen's Lake Erie.

Dunce has been coming on strong since he ran out of the money in the Kentucky Derby, won by Tomy Lee. The 3-year-old son of Tom Fool-Ghazni bounced back to finish fourth in the Preakness — second of the triple crown events — and Tuesday impressed his owners with a 2½-length triumph in the High Gun Purse at Belmont Park.

Lake Erie has a proud reputation to uphold. His daddy, War Admiral, successfully completed the Kentucky Derby - Preakness-Belmont triple in 1937.

The favorite's role likely will go to Preakness winner Royal Orbit. Other likely to start are Sword Dancer, Black Hills, Bagdad and Manassa Mauler.

Left fielder John Burgwyn led the University of North Carolina batters with a .324 mark this spring.

Buckeye Stars Seek Second Straight Win

The Ohio All-Stars will be shooting for their second straight victory over a star-studded squad from Western Pennsylvania tonight 8 at the Salem High School gymnasium.

Ohio scored a 73-55 victory in the first meeting Saturday at Farrell.

Ken Glenn was the big star in the first contest, the 6-foot-6 cager from Cleveland East Tech pouring in 18 points.

The game at Farrell was nip and tuck for the first half until the Buckeyes opened up to take a commanding lead early in the second half.

Other performers for Ohio will be Jim Stone of Cleveland East Tech, Ron Sabo and Paul Avery of Youngstown Chaney and Woody Deitch and Lou Slaby of Salem.

Bonnell Wins Singles Title At East Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — James Bonnell of Beaver Falls rallied, after losing the first set, and defeated Ted Ostrowski of New Castle to win the Knights of Columbus singles championship Tuesday night in the annual tennis tournament at City Park.

Bonnell lost 4-6, then won 6-1 and 6-2. Trophies were presented to the winner and to the runner-up. Trombold and Lally of East Palestine defeated Samuels and Stergeon of New Castle in the doubles semi-finals.

The doubles winners will meet Thursday night at City Park the winners of a match tonight at New Castle.

The great Man o' War sired 62 stakes winners before his death in 1947.

Schoendienst To Delay Comeback A Few Weeks

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Red Schoendienst, veteran Braves second baseman, was reported today recovering satisfactorily from tuberculosis but it appeared doubtful whether he would be able to begin practice in Milwaukee early in July as he originally planned.

Red's wife, Mary, reported that his Doctor William Werner had not given him the go-ahead sign for any serious workouts but he went through a 40-minute drill stopping grounders in the backyard of their home last Saturday.

She said that her father, Jim O'Reilly, a former semi-pro ball player hit several grounders to Schoendienst.

"I'm a little prejudiced," she said, "but I thought Red looked real sharp digging those grounders out of the dirt.

"In my own way, too, I've given him a series of little tests to see how his reflexes react-and here, too, he's been sharp as ever.

"But we can't rush things and Dr. Werner still hasn't given him permission to start working out.

"We originally planned to move to Milwaukee after school was dismissed for the summer, but I think we'll have to delay matters a little."

Red had planned to start practice after the first All-Star Game July 8.

The proper thing to do is look at the wildlife, enjoy wildlife and let it alone.

Young Giants Of Shot Put Will Highlight AAU Meet

By FRANK PITMAN

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — Colorado, seldom in the big time track and field spotlight, jumps into prominence June 19-20 as host for the 71st National AAU track and field championships.

The event at University of Colorado's mile-high Folsom Field is the final proving ground for the selections of two topflight squads of United States athletes. They will compete against the Russians in Philadelphia July 18-19 and in the Pan American Games in Chicago Aug. 27-Sept. 7.

"The 1959 National AAU meet should be even greater than the one we had here in 1955," says Frank Potts, Colorado track coach since 1927 and president of the Rocky Mountain AAU.

The 1955 meet—Colorado's first try at entertaining a national track and field event — drew 21,000 fans. It was one of the best-attended AAU meets ever.

Official AAU fears that high altitude might hamper runners in the 1955 meet vanished with a record clocking in the 800 meter (half-mile) race. The first four finishers equalled or bettered the world record.

PARRY O'BRIEN
Will Toss In AAU Meet.

Pittsburgh's Arnie Sowell won by a hairbreadth from Tom Courtney of Fordham in 1:47.6. Billy Tidwell and Lang Stanley were inches behind. The mark is still the AAU record.

The 800 meter race vindicated Potts, who contended the thin atmosphere wouldn't slow down runners until the mile. Potts figures the smaller amount of oxygen in the air adds about 10 seconds to the miler's time but there is no effect up to that distance.

One of the top events this time is a match among the nation's three greatest shotputters — Parry O'Brien, Dallas Long and Bill Neider. All have bettered 63 feet.

O'Brien, 1956 Olympic Champion, holds the official record of 63 feet 2 inches set Nov. 1, 1956 in Los Angeles. Long, a freshman at University of Southern California, has a 63-feet 7-inch heave to his credit this season.

Most of the nation's current collegiate stars, along with AAU veterans, will compete as the event here follows the NCAA championships in Lincoln, Neb., less than 500 miles away.

While the big lure for the competitors here is selection on the teams for the Pan American and Russian events, several smaller groups will be chosen from the field to tour abroad during the summer.

Patterson Set For Anything From Swede

CHATHAM, N.J. (AP)—Reports that Ingemar Johansson appears to be strictly a right-hand puncher, make no impression at all with heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson.

As far as Patterson is concerned, the unbeaten Swede could very well be a terror with his right and a killer with his left.

"I've heard talk that his power is supposed to be only with his right hand," said Patterson at his training camp today. "But I'm not going to pay any attention to that. I never do.

"I haven't seen him fight since we were in the Olympics at Helsinki in '52. I saw just a bit of the movie of his fight with Eddie Machen on TV Sunday night. He looked like he could punch real hard with his right."

It was the right that sent Machen thumping to the floor when Johansson knocked out the Californian in the first round at Goteborg, Sweden, last Sept. 14.

"Don't think for a minute I'm just going to watch his right," continued Floyd. "You do something like that and the next thing you know you could get caught by a left hook. My idea is not to get caught by anything. I'd rather do the hitting.

"So I'll be prepared for anything from Johansson. He's the No. 1 contender. He's undefeated. He has 13 knockouts in 21 fights. He must be good. I'll have to be better."

Patterson resumed boxing after a one-day layoff because of the official signing for the fight at the New York Athletic Commission offices Tuesday. The fight is scheduled for June 25 at Yankee Stadium.

Short's 3-Hitter Pads Buffalo Edge In International

By The Associated Press

The skeptics who wondered if left-hander Chris Short was good enough to come from the Class A Eastern League into the triple-A International League have their answer today.

Short carved it emphatically Tuesday night with a three-hit, 4-2 victory for the Buffalo Bisons over Columbus as the International League-leading Bisons hiked their first place lead to a game and a half over second place Richmond.

The Vees had a nine-game winning streak snapped by the Rochester Red Wings, 13-7. The Montreal Royals swept a doubleheader from the Havana Sugar Kings, winning the first 8-6 and the nightcap 2-1 in 10 innings. The Miami Marlins knocked off the last place Toronto Maple Leafs, 9-2.

Only five golfers have repeated in the Masters tournament. The last one was Sam Snead in 1954. Both Snead and Jimmy Demaret have won the Masters three times.

Football Score? No, Minor League Team Wins, 31-9

It's too early for football season, but Coca Cola and Elks, members of the Minor League, posted a score Tuesday that would resemble one from the gridiron.

Coca Cola notched a 31-9 victory over the Elks Tuesday.

The winners rattled off 14 hits and both teams committed eight errors.

Jay Welch pitched and batted his team to victory. Hurling a three hitter, he also added a home run, triple and single. Jim Neiser homered for the winners.

Miller's double topped the losers.

In a game played Monday, First National Bank won, 9-2, and not Potters Savings and Loan as was reported.

Furniture City collected 15 hits to defeat Potters Bank and Trust, 15-4. Dick Shilling was the winning pitcher and recorded eight strikeouts.

Besides doing the pitching Shilling belted two doubles and a pair of singles. Alford clubbed a home run and two doubles for the winners.

Copestick paced Potters Bank and Trust with a home run, single and double.

Lou Boudreau, star American League shortstop for many years, broke into organized baseball by playing third base with Cedar Rapids, Iowa in the Three I League.

Hints From Lopat

Ed Tells Young Pitchers To Keep Looking At Target

Former Yankee Pitching Ace
Written for AP Newsfeatures

In order to pitch properly, a youngster must know what he is about to do. Don't get into the bad habit of looking at the sky, at the ground or to the sidelines. Look at your target. That would be the catcher's mitt.

The sooner you school yourself to the good habits, the sooner you will learn good control.

Don't try to pick up the target when the pitch is halfway home. Get your eyes on the target when you come to the set pitching position, and stay with that target. This will also help your follow through.

Once you go into a pitching motion with your arms, your eyes should never leave the catcher's mitt. Even after releasing the ball, follow the ball all the way in with your eyes.

With this method of pitching you can see every reaction the batter has towards the ball. You can see what your pitch is doing and what the batter is doing.

I advise youngsters to refrain from pitching every day or even every other day. Working daily does quite a bit of harm to the arm. The arm must have proper rest.

When it comes your turn to pitch, say every fourth day, the warmup pitching on the sidelines should be done gradually. Throw the ball easy at first. Take your time so that the arm muscles will loosen up gradually.

Ten to 14 minutes should be enough for a pitcher's warm up. This depends on the individual and weather conditions. You throw maybe 75 or more pitches warming up. The first 20 or 25 balls should be thrown as you would throw a ball while playing soft catch. Then gradually increase the momentum to the point where you throw the ball possibly as hard as you can.

Throw at least 50 to 60 pitches before you start throwing with all you've got.

Next: stance and pivot.

Yankee Phone Gal Busy On Day Off, Last Place

By FRANK ECK
By The Associated Press

This was a day when the cellar-dwelling Yankees couldn't lose. There was no game. It was an off day but you wouldn't know it standing next to the switch board in Yankee Stadium.

If a child passes under the turnstile, which is 42 inches high, you won't have to pay.

"If there's an empty seat nearby your child can use it.

"Ladies day is 50 cents."

It sounded like a question and answer game but Mrs. Ruth Bayline wasn't playing. She was answering all the silly questions baseball fans ask.

Ruth has been doing this, taking care of the Yankee Stadium two position switchboard of 27 trunk lines and more than 10 extensions for 31 years.

"Came here five years after the park was opened," said Mrs. Bayline between plug - ins. "We've seen them come and go. We've had slumps before but never anything like this because more people use the phones today.

"If I knew what was wrong I wouldn't be on this board. When a caller asks 'What's wrong with the Yankees?' my stock answer is: 'I wish I knew.' "

Her husband Edgar, she says, is a "real baseball nut. He has a great collection of autographed pictures, baseballs, bats and scrapbooks.

"Favorite managers? Without a doubt, Casey Stengel! He's tops. So is Joe McCarthy, and his wife Babe. I hear from Joe every time he comes down from Buffalo."

Mrs. Bayline, a native of the Bronx, says her busiest day is a cloudy day.

"That's when people have doubts about a game, especially if it rains in the morning," she sighs.

Answering hundreds upon hundreds of calls daily can test an operator's patience. Yet sitting behind the board leading to the executive offices in Yankee Stadium is a job Ruth Bayline likes.

"This had been a very happy association," she admits.

"My favorite player? I liked Babe Ruth very much," says Mrs. Bayline. "And Lou Gehrig was a peach. And Joe DiMaggio and Tommy Byrne, and Ed Lopat is still one of my favorites. Oh, there were so many I really can't name them all.

"My toughest job these days? People expect me to tell them what's wrong with the Yankees. Some of the people expect me to ask Mr. Stengel."

Sugar Hart To Face Logart On TV Tonight

CHICAGO (AP) — Garnet (Sugar) Hart, who has kayoed 21 opponents in 32 bouts, takes on veteran Isaac Logart of Cuba tonight in a Chicago Stadium 10-round welterweight bout.

Hart, 23, the No. 1 contender for Don Jordan's title, has a 27-3-2 record. The Philadelphia is an 8-5 favorite over Logart.

Logart, 26, will be making his 75th professional start. He has a 55-12-7 record which also includes 21 knockouts.

The bout will be televised nationally by ABC-TV beginning at 10 p. m. EDT.

Bob Pettit of the St. Louis Hawks set six scoring records in the National Basketball Assn. last season. The former LSU star averaged 29.2 points a game.

Set June 19-20 In Colorado

Young Giants Of Shot Put Will Highlight AAU Meet

By FRANK PITMAN

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — Colorado, seldom in the big time track and field spotlight, jumps into prominence June 19-20 as host for the 71st National AAU track and field championships.

The event at University of Colorado's mile-high Folsom Field is the final proving ground for the selections of two topflight squads of United States athletes. They will compete against the Russians in Philadelphia July 18-19 and in the Pan American Games in Chicago Aug. 27-Sept. 7.

"The 1959 National AAU meet should be even greater than the one we had here in 1955," says Frank Potts, Colorado track coach since 1927 and president of the Rocky Mountain AAU.

The 1955 meet—Colorado's first try at entertaining a national track and field event — drew 21,000 fans. It was one of the best-attended AAU meets ever.

Official AAU fears that high altitude might hamper runners in the 1955 meet vanished with a record clocking in the 800 meter (half-mile) race. The first four finishers equalled or bettered the world record.

PARRY O'BRIEN
Will Toss In AAU Meet.

Pittsburgh's Arnie Sowell won by a hairbreadth from Tom Courtney of Fordham in 1:47.6. Billy Tidwell and Lang Stanley were inches behind. The mark is still the AAU record.

The 800 meter race vindicated Potts, who contended the thin atmosphere wouldn't slow down runners until the mile. Potts figures the smaller amount of oxygen in the air adds about 10 seconds to the miler's time but there is no effect up to that distance.

One of the top events this time is a match among the nation's three greatest shotputters — Parry O'Brien, Dallas Long and Bill Neider. All have bettered 63 feet.

O'Brien, 1956 Olympic Champion, holds the official record of 63 feet 2 inches set Nov. 1, 1956 in Los Angeles. Long, a freshman at University of Southern California, has a 63-feet 7-inch heave to his credit this season.

Most of the nation's current collegiate stars, along with AAU veterans, will compete as the event here follows the NCAA championships in Lincoln, Neb., less than 500 miles away.

While the big lure for the competitors here is selection on the teams for the Pan American and Russian events, several smaller groups will be chosen from the field to tour abroad during the summer.

Patterson Set For Anything From Swede

CHATHAM, N.J. (AP)—Reports that Ingemar Johansson appears to be strictly a right-hand puncher, make no impression at all with heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson.

As far as Patterson is concerned, the unbeaten Swede could very well be a terror with his right and a killer with his left.

"I've heard talk that his power is supposed to be only with his right hand," said Patterson at his training camp today. "But I'm not going to pay any attention to that. I never do.

"I haven't seen him fight since we were in the Olympics at Helsinki in '52. I saw just a bit of the movie of his fight with Eddie Machen on TV Sunday night. He looked like he could punch real hard with his right."

It was the right that sent Machen thumping to the floor when Johansson knocked out the Californian in the first round at Goteborg, Sweden, last Sept. 14.

"Don't think for a minute I'm just going to watch his right," continued Floyd. "You do something like that and the next thing you know you could get caught by a left hook. My idea is not to get caught by anything. I'd rather do the hitting.

"So I'll be prepared for anything from Johansson. He's the No. 1 contender. He's undefeated. He has 13 knockouts in 21 fights. He must be good. I'll have to be better."

Patterson resumed boxing after a one-day layoff because of the official signing for the fight at the New York Athletic Commission offices Tuesday. The fight is scheduled for June 25 at Yankee Stadium.

Short's 3-Hitter Pads Buffalo Edge In International

By The Associated Press

The skeptics who wondered if left-hander Chris Short was good enough to come from the Class A Eastern League into the triple-A International League have their answer today.

Short carved it emphatically Tuesday night with a three-hit, 4-2 victory for the Buffalo Bisons over Columbus as the International League-leading Bisons hiked their first place lead to a game and a half over second place Richmond.

The Vees had a nine-game winning streak snapped by the Rochester Red Wings, 13-7. The Montreal Royals swept a doubleheader from the Havana Sugar Kings, winning the first 8-6 and the nightcap 2-1 in 10 innings. The Miami Marlins knocked off the last place Toronto Maple Leafs, 9-2.

Only five golfers have repeated in the Masters tournament. The last one was Sam Snead in 1954. Both Snead and Jimmy Demaret have won the Masters three times.

Football Score? No, Minor League Team Wins, 31-9

It's too early for football season, but Coca Cola and Elks, members of the Minor League, posted a score Tuesday that would resemble one from the gridiron.

Coca Cola notched a 31-9 victory over the Elks Tuesday.

The winners rattled off 14 hits and both teams committed eight errors.

Jay Welch pitched and batted his team to victory. Hurling a three hitter, he also added a home run, triple and single. Jim Neiser homered for the winners.

Miller's double topped the losers.

In a game played Monday, First National Bank won, 9-2, and not Potters Savings and Loan as was reported.

Furniture City collected 15 hits to defeat Potters Bank and Trust, 15-4. Dick Shilling was the winning pitcher and recorded eight strikeouts.

Besides doing the pitching Shilling belted two doubles and a pair of singles. Alford clubbed a home run and two doubles for the winners.

Copestick paced Potters Bank and Trust with a home run, single and double.

Lou Boudreau, star American League shortstop for many years, broke into organized baseball by playing third base with Cedar Rapids, Iowa in the Three I League.

Ed Tells Young Pitchers To Keep Looking At Target

Former Yankee Pitching Ace
Written for AP Newsfeatures

In order to pitch properly, a youngster must know what he is about to do. Don't get into the bad habit of looking at the sky, at the ground or to the sidelines. Look at your target. That would be the catcher's mitt.

The sooner you school yourself to the good habits, the sooner you will learn good control.

Don't try to pick up the target when the pitch is halfway home. Get your eyes on the target when you come to the set pitching position, and stay with that target. This will also help your follow through.

Once you go into a pitching motion with your arms, your eyes should never leave the catcher's mitt. Even after releasing the ball, follow the ball all the way in with your eyes.

With this method of pitching you can see every reaction the batter has towards the ball. You can see what your pitch is doing and what the batter is doing.

I advise youngsters to refrain from pitching every day or even every other day. Working daily does quite a bit of harm to the arm. The arm must have proper rest.

When it comes your turn to pitch, say every fourth day, the warmup pitching on the sidelines should be done gradually. Throw the ball easy at first. Take your time so that the arm muscles will loosen up gradually.

Ten to 14 minutes should be enough for a pitcher's warm up. This depends on the individual and weather conditions. You throw maybe 75 or more pitches warming up. The first 20 or 25 balls should be thrown as you would throw a ball while playing soft catch. Then gradually increase the momentum to the point where you throw the ball possibly as hard as you can.

Throw at least 50 to 60 pitches before you start throwing with all you've got.

Next: stance and pivot.

Yankee Phone Gal Busy On Day Off, Last Place

By FRANK ECK
By The Associated Press

This was a day when the cellar-dwelling Yankees couldn't lose. There was no game. It was an off day but you wouldn't know it standing next to the switch board in Yankee Stadium.

If a child passes under the turnstile, which is 42 inches high, you won't have to pay.

"If there's an empty seat nearby your child can use it.

"Ladies day is 50 cents."

It sounded like a question and answer game but Mrs. Ruth Bayline wasn't playing. She was answering all the silly questions baseball fans ask.

Ruth has been doing this, taking care of the Yankee Stadium two position switchboard of 27 trunk lines and more than 10 extensions for 31 years.

"Came here five years after the park was opened," said Mrs. Bayline between plug - ins. "We've seen them come and go. We've had slumps before but never anything like this because more people use the phones today.

"If I knew what was wrong I wouldn't be on this board. When a caller asks 'What's wrong with the Yankees?' my stock answer is: 'I wish I knew.' "

Her husband Edgar, she says, is a "real baseball nut. He has a great collection of autographed pictures, baseballs, bats and scrapbooks.

"Favorite managers? Without a doubt, Casey Stengel! He's tops. So is Joe McCarthy, and his wife Babe. I hear from Joe every time he comes down from Buffalo."

Mrs. Bayline, a native of the Bronx, says her busiest day is a cloudy day.

"That's when people have doubts about a game, especially if it rains in the morning," she sighs.

Answering hundreds upon hundreds of calls daily can test an operator's patience. Yet sitting behind the board leading to the executive offices in Yankee Stadium is a job Ruth Bayline likes.

"This had been a very happy association," she admits.

"My favorite player? I liked Babe Ruth very much," says Mrs. Bayline. "And Lou Gehrig was a peach. And Joe DiMaggio and Tommy Byrne, and Ed Lopat is still one of my favorites. Oh, there were so many I really can't name them all.

"My toughest job these days? People expect me to tell them what's wrong with the Yankees. Some of the people expect me to ask Mr. Stengel."

Dirksen Okays Democratic Plan—But No New Spending

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate's Republican leader approved informally today a Democratic worksheet loaded with political fireworks but omitting any big new spending bills.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill) noted in an interview that Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas had included several major requests of President Eisenhower in an outline Tuesday of the work ahead for the Senate.

Among other things, Johnson called for action on "a reasonable civil rights measure which will appeal to free men who wish to make progress rather than make an issue." Dirksen said he agrees sponsors are going to have to tread this politics-mined field cautiously if they want to pass a bill.

Of Johnson's list of priority measures, Dirksen ticked off a number of others he recalled Eisenhower had requested.

These included extension of the international wheat agreement and excise tax rates; military and atomic energy construction; foreign aid and creation of an inter-American development bank.

However, the Republican leader said he can't predict these will be passed in a form acceptable to the President.

Johnson's list was notable for what it did not contain.

The Democratic leader made no mention, for instance, of a bill by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn), a possible rival for the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination, to set up a Youth Conservation Corps. Dirksen has said the cost of this project would be extremely high.

Johnson also indicated that the Democrats may put off until next year any effort to write a general farm program and an aid-to-education measure.

He said he doesn't know whether bills to broaden the coverage of the wage-hour and unemployment compensation acts can be reached in this session. Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass), an obvious presidential aspirant, is interested in these.

Police Kill Big Black Bear In Baltimore

BALTIMORE (AP)—City police report they shot and killed a large, black bear in downtown Baltimore about 4:15 a.m. today.

Somewhat proudly, officers said they think it was the same elusive bear that gave Washington police so much trouble recently.

Two men spotted the animal late Tuesday night near a cemetery in the southwest section. Police were alerted. Some 100 officers joined in the hunt.

The bear wandered in and out of alleys, with dogs at its heels. The hunt ended about five hours later when police felled the animal with a high-powered rifle.

It took four policemen to load it into a wagon.

New York Police, Pickets Clash In Hospital Unrest

NEW YORK (AP)—Fifty policemen, swinging nightsticks, and about 100 pickets clashed Tuesday in the first outbreak of mass violence in the month-old hospital strike.

Seven pickets were arrested. No serious injuries were reported.

Leon Davis, president of the striking union, called for an investigation by Mayor Robert F. Wagner.

"We vigorously protest the brutal clubbing of the defenseless strikers by the police," he said. "And we call upon Mayor Wagner to investigate and take immediate action against the policemen responsible for these outrageous attacks."

The brief flareup occurred at a medical school graduation ceremony near one of the seven hospitals struck by nonprofessional workers.

Stereotypers' Strike Hits St. Louis Papers

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Both St. Louis daily newspapers were closed today by a strike of St. Louis Stereotypers Union Local 8 against the afternoon Post-Dispatch.

Materials and jurisdiction were involved in the complicated dispute.

The union struck at midnight Tuesday, forcing the morning Globe-Democrat to suspend publication. The Globe, target of a recent 99-day strike by the American Newspaper Guild, is printed by the Post-Dispatch under contract.

Wyoming, in 1869, was the first state to grant suffrage to women.

Dirksen Okays Democratic Plan—But No New Spending

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate's Republican leader approved informally today a Democratic worksheet loaded with political fireworks but omitting any big new spending bills.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill) noted in an interview that Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas had included several major requests of President Eisenhower in an outline Tuesday of the work ahead for the Senate.

Among other things, Johnson called for action on "a reasonable civil rights measure which will appeal to free men who wish to make progress rather than make an issue." Dirksen said he agrees sponsors are going to have to tread this politics-mined field cautiously if they want to pass a bill.

Of Johnson's list of priority measures, Dirksen ticked off a number of others he recalled Eisenhower had requested.

These included extension of the international wheat agreement and excise tax rates; military and atomic energy construction; foreign aid and creation of an inter-American development bank.

However, the Republican leader said he can't predict these will be passed in a form acceptable to the President.

Johnson's list was notable for what it did not contain.

The Democratic leader made no mention, for instance, of a bill by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn), a possible rival for the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination, to set up a Youth Conservation Corps. Dirksen has said the cost of this project would be extremely high.

Johnson also indicated that the Democrats may put off until next year any effort to write a general farm program and an aid-to-education measure.

He said he doesn't know whether bills to broaden the coverage of the wage-hour and unemployment compensation acts can be reached in this session. Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass), an obvious presidential aspirant, is interested in these.

Police Kill Big Black Bear In Baltimore

BALTIMORE (AP)—City police report they shot and killed a large, black bear in downtown Baltimore about 4:15 a.m. today.

Somewhat proudly, officers said they think it was the same elusive bear that gave Washington police so much trouble recently.

Two men spotted the animal late Tuesday night near a cemetery in the southwest section. Police were alerted. Some 100 officers joined in the hunt.

The bear wandered in and out of alleys, with dogs at its heels. The hunt ended about five hours later when police felled the animal with a high-powered rifle.

It took four policemen to load it into a wagon.

Seaman On Destroyer

LISBON — Navy Fire Control Technician 3C Herbert J. Smith, son of Mrs. Pauline Gerwig, 541 E. Chestnut St., is serving on the destroyer Charles Ware slated for a cruise of 28 Navy ships on the Great Lakes this summer. The ships will enter the lakes June 25 and return to the Atlantic Fleet in July.

New York Police, Pickets Clash In Hospital Unrest

NEW YORK (AP)—Fifty policemen, swinging nightsticks, and about 100 pickets clashed Tuesday in the first outbreak of mass violence in the month-old hospital strike.

Seven pickets were arrested. No serious injuries were reported.

Leon Davis, president of the striking union, called for an investigation by Mayor Robert F. Wagner.

"We vigorously protest the brutal clubbing of the defenseless strikers by the police," he said. "And we call upon Mayor Wagner to investigate and take immediate action against the policemen responsible for these outrageous attacks."

The brief flareup occurred at a medical school graduation ceremony near one of the seven hospitals struck by nonprofessional workers.

Stereotypers' Strike Hits St. Louis Papers

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Both St. Louis daily newspapers were closed today by a strike of St. Louis Stereotypers Union Local 8 against the afternoon Post-Dispatch.

Materials and jurisdiction were involved in the complicated dispute.

The union struck at midnight Tuesday, forcing the morning Globe-Democrat to suspend publication. The Globe, target of a recent 99-day strike by the American Newspaper Guild, is printed by the Post-Dispatch under contract.

Wyoming, in 1869, was the first state to grant suffrage to women.

In Wake Of Earl's Commitment

Is Long Dynasty Falling? Capital Of Louisiana Asks

In 1928, a fiery country lawyer named Huey P. Long was elected governor of Lousiana and the state has felt the Long family's political influence ever since. But with the commitment of Gov. Earl Long, Huey's younger brother, to a Texas psychiatric clinic two weeks ago, there have been rumglings the Long dynasty was crumbling. AP writer Hugh A. Mulligan, an AP staffer at Louisiana's Capitol for three years, returned to Baton Rouge to survey Louisiana's government under the Long influence. Today's story, the first of three, deals with the situation in the wake of Earl Long's commitment.

By HUGH A. MULLIGAN
AP Staff Writer

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—The long Long trail winding through Louisiana politics for 30 years has meandered tragically to the gates of a Galveston, Tex., mental clinic where Earl Long, Huey's younger brother, is confined after two shockingly profane speeches to the Legislature.

Will Earl be back? Is the Long dynasty dead?

These are the questions being asked openly and answered guardedly in the 34-story state Capitol building that rises as a giant headstone over Huey P. Long's grave.

A sanity hearing next week will provide some indication of the 63-year old governor's political future.

Since Earl's departure, no one has dared to pick up the Long mantle but some have tip-toed up to sniff at it.

Rumors persist that U.S. Sen. Russell Long, Huey's son who bears a striking physical resemblance to the late Kingfish, is maneuvering to take over the Long forces and run for governor in the December Democratic primary with the support of Delesseps Morrison, the dynamic mayor of New Orleans. Morrison would then complete the rest of Russell's Senate term and run for a full term with his support in 1961.

Both deny that any deal has been struck.

"I've always had an ambition to be governor and someday follow my father in the mansion," Russell Long said in an interview, "but I have serious doubts at this time about leaving the Senate for the governorship. The normal political path is through the governor's office to the U.S. Senate, not the other way around. However, if it were the only way of keeping the Long faction together, I might consider running."

The senator joined in the family conclave that decided to sign commitment papers for the stricken governor.

"My uncle and I have differed politically in the past," he said. "He has his following, I have mine. As far as I'm concerned, Lt. Gov. Lether Frazar is the head of the Long forces now. I'm available for help but not here to put pressure on things."

Spending most of his time in Washington, Russell lacks the strong personal following and patronage-fed political machine that made his father and uncle absolute bosses of the Long faction.

Many of Russell's opponents, together with some of his friends, feel that he lost considerable ground by showing flashes of temper when six House members objected to his addressing a joint session to explain the governor's illness and sudden trip out of state.

If the Long camp is wary until the old warrior's future is determined by psychiatrists, many former Long supporters are anxious to pick up the pieces of his following. Among them are Secretary of State Wade O. Martin Jr., and State Comptroller Bill Dodd, both potent vote getters. There are even rumors that Blanche Long, the governor's wife, might be persuaded to run.

Segregation leaders, growing in political power since the Supreme Court school decision, are convinced that Earl Long's breakdown, witnessed by thousands on television, marks the end of the Long dynasty, regardless of whether he ever runs again.

In Louisiana the governor cannot succeed himself, but Earl a few weeks ago came up with a scheme to resign before his term ends in favor of Lt. Gov. Frazar and then run to succeed Frazar.

Long collided head on with segregation leaders when he attempted to forestall by legislation a vote registration cleanup that in the past three years has removed thousands of Negroes from the rolls.

Although he insisted that he was "100 per cent for segregation" and merely out to protect the poor white vote, segregationists accused him of making blatant play for Negro support.

For 30 years Long against Long has been the dominant theme in Louisiana politics, with each side certain of anywhere from 30 to 40 per cent of the vote, and there are those who say it always will be a major factor as long as there is anyone around with the name of Long.

"I've never known a Long to be politically dead, certainly not the governor," insists State Sen. C.H. Downs of Alexandria, a Long leader.

(Next: The rise of Huey Long and his still lingering influence on Louisiana politics.)

Picnic Plans Pushed By Civil Defense Group

Further plans were made by the 31st Mobile Support Group Tuesday night for the picnic to be held July 19 at the DAV Club at West Point.

The Civil Defense group met at the Glenmoor fire station with 25 attending. Fire Chief Herman Heiney said the fire team will meet at 5:30 Friday night to take their truck to the Liverpool Township East fire station at Dixonville for standby while the latter department's truck is being repaired.

The fire and rescue teams will attend classes June 22 at Lisbon.

The mobile unit's next meeting will be June 23 at 8 p. m. at the Glenmoor station.

Curiosity Gets Boy's Arm Stuck In Pipe 3 Hours

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Poor Henry, thought 12-year-old Cheryl Hammons. What a way to spend an afternoon—with one arm stuck in a drain pipe.

Henry French Jr., with the insatiable curiosity of an 11-year-old, had thrust his arm, up to the elbow, into a drain pipe leading out of a building near his home here. "I just wanted to see what was in there," he remarked later.

Cheryl, tugging as hard as she could, couldn't pull his arm out when it got stuck.

So for nearly three hours Tuesday, Henry could do little but wait while a crew with an air hammer chipped away at the concrete surrounding the pipe. They finally were able to cut through the pipe and free Henry's arm, swollen but otherwise unhurt.

Both deny that any deal has been struck.

"I've always had an ambition to be governor and someday follow my father in the mansion," Russell Long said in an interview, "but I have serious doubts at this time about leaving the Senate for the governorship. The normal political path is through the governor's office to the U.S. Senate, not the other way around. However, if it were the only way of keeping the Long faction together, I might consider running."

The senator joined in the family conclave that decided to sign commitment papers for the stricken governor.

"My uncle and I have differed politically in the past," he said. "He has his following, I have mine. As far as I'm concerned, Lt. Gov. Lether Frazar is the head of the Long forces now. I'm available for help but not here to put pressure on things."

Spending most of his time in Washington, Russell lacks the strong personal following and patronage-fed political machine that made his father and uncle absolute bosses of the Long faction.

Many of Russell's opponents, together with some of his friends, feel that he lost considerable ground by showing flashes of temper when six House members objected to his addressing a joint session to explain the governor's illness and sudden trip out of state.

If the Long camp is wary until the old warrior's future is determined by psychiatrists, many former Long supporters are anxious to pick up the pieces of his following. Among them are Secretary of State Wade O. Martin Jr., and State Comptroller Bill Dodd, both potent vote getters. There are even rumors that Blanche Long, the governor's wife, might be persuaded to run.

Segregation leaders, growing in political power since the Supreme Court school decision, are convinced that Earl Long's breakdown, witnessed by thousands on television, marks the end of the Long dynasty, regardless of whether he ever runs again.

In Louisiana the governor cannot succeed himself, but Earl a few weeks ago came up with a scheme to resign before his term ends in favor of Lt. Gov. Frazar and then run to succeed Frazar.

Long collided head on with segregation leaders when he attempted to forestall by legislation a vote registration cleanup that in the past three years has removed thousands of Negroes from the rolls.

Although he insisted that he was "100 per cent for segregation" and merely out to protect the poor white vote, segregationists accused him of making blatant play for Negro support.

For 30 years Long against Long has been the dominant theme in Louisiana politics, with each side certain of anywhere from 30 to 40 per cent of the vote, and there are those who say it always will be a major factor as long as there is anyone around with the name of Long.

"I've never known a Long to be politically dead, certainly not the governor," insists State Sen. C.H. Downs of Alexandria, a Long leader.

Picnic Plans Pushed By Civil Defense Group

Further plans were made by the 31st Mobile Support Group Tuesday night for the picnic to be held July 19 at the DAV Club at West Point.

The Civil Defense group met at the Glenmoor fire station with 25 attending. Fire Chief Herman Heiney said the fire team will meet at 5:30 Friday night to take their truck to the Liverpool Township East fire station at Dixonville for standby while the latter department's truck is being repaired.

The fire and rescue teams will attend classes June 22 at Lisbon.

The mobile unit's next meeting will be June 23 at 8 p. m. at the Glenmoor station.

Curiosity Gets Boy's Arm Stuck In Pipe 3 Hours

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Poor Henry, thought 12-year-old Cheryl Hammons. What a way to spend an afternoon—with one arm stuck in a drain pipe.

Henry French Jr., with the insatiable curiosity of an 11-year-old, had thrust his arm, up to the elbow, into a drain pipe leading out of a building near his home here.

"I just wanted to see what was in there," he remarked later.

Cheryl, tugging as hard as she could, couldn't pull his arm out when it got stuck.

So for nearly three hours Tuesday, Henry could do little but wait while a crew with an air hammer chipped away at the concrete surrounding the pipe. They finally were able to cut through the pipe and free Henry's arm, swollen but otherwise unhurt.
